...with greater discipline...
...factory workers...
...they can be deployed with greater freedom and on a large scale...
"Only natural"
"This is said to contradict the view of Marx and Engels..."
"establishment of industrial armies especially for agriculture..."
"periodical affairs that could be arranged along military lines..."
"nothing to be feared..."
"it is only natural that the whole population should be citizen soldiers ready to cope with the commercial aggressors"
"While the present organization of military lines is only for the waging of battles against nature..."
"it is not the less not difficult to transform the kind of struggle into another..."
"In case of war it would make it possible for the entire armed population to be mobilized to wipe out the enemy."
