NE/2 is interested in any and all printed material from Sinkiang Province; also in Chinese Communist Propaganda directed against Moslems in China.

We are not, of course, aware of the full range of printed material published and/or disseminated in Kashgar (Sinkiang Province, Northwest China) which may be available through Hqs assets but would like to place requirements for the following general types of material:

A. Atheistic propaganda and publications.

B. Printed matter urging Moslems to adopt attitudes contrary to the dictates of Islam.

C. Published laws of the Sinkiang Autonomous Province or of the Chinese People's Republic applying to Sinkiang Autonomous Republic.

D. Any published material containing derogatory or patronizing references to people of any of the Afro-Asian Conference countries.

E. Printed evidence of the existence of the ASIAO MIET Campaign of deprivation of over existence, reported on in Time magazine during early March 1956.
