

POW Broadcasts

Recordings of broadcasts made by Americans over foreign radios are among the items on permanent file.

FOIAB3B1 From these recordings, [] is giving support to the Department of Defense in its courts martial of service personnel who were captured in the Korean War and who are charged with anti-American broadcasts. [] is furnishing recordings and transcripts of broadcasts made by individuals while prisoners and, when called upon to do so, is providing witnesses at the trials.

FOIAB3B1

FOIAB3B1 To date, cases involving 303 persons have been referred to [] by the Army, of which 136 cases, involving 202 broadcasts, have been processed. Recordings and transcripts furnished have contributed substantially to the prosecution of the cases thus far completed.