Department of the Navy

Dear Admiral deFlorez:

I wish to acknowledge with thanks your letter of March 15th concerning European economics. This subject has been of prime interest to me for quite a number of years, particularly so with reference to our large business interests in this area.

If I can be of any assistance to you, please know that I am at your service. I am especially anxious to make my services available to the Navy, since I served in ONI during World War II.

Any arrangements you may wish to make for a meeting will be agreeable to me. I am at your service.

Yours sincerely,
