10. (a) In the event the premises or installations are destroyed or become uninhabitable, in whole or in part, because of latent or structural defects in the building or installations, or because of damage for any cause over which the lessee has no control, the lessee may terminate the lease without notice or the lessee may notify the lessor to effect immediate repairs.

(b) If the lessor fails to institute work for such repairs within 10 days of the receipt of such notice, the lessee may proceed on his own initiative to effect such repairs. The cost of these repairs shall be remitted to the lessee by the lessor; or the lessee may deduct the cost from any regular rental payments.

(c) In the event the lessee terminates the lease as provided in this article, the lessor shall refund to the lessee the balance of any rent advanced representing the unused portion of the advance.

11. In the event the lessee fails to fulfill any of the conditions of this lease, the lessor may terminate the lease without notice; but such termination shall be effective only if the lessor refunds to the lessee any unused portion of any advance payment of rent made by the lessee hereunder.

12. In the event the lessor fails to fulfill any of the conditions of the lease, the lessee may terminate the lease without notice and the lessor shall refund the balance of the rent for the unused part of the term within ten days, provided, however, that the lessee reserves the right to assert any other claim for damages to which he might be entitled by reason of such violation by the lessor.

13. The English text of this lease shall prevail for interpretation of the provisions thereof.

14. The lessor and lessee may add, prior to the signature thereof, other provisions to this lease by listing them in an "Exhibit B" attached hereto.

IN WITNESS HEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto subscribed their names to quintuplicates originals as of the day first above written.
