- b. Communist Control Measures: The typing onto ditto sheets of this document has begun within the Overseas Branch. Upon the completion of this process the document will be sent to reproduction.
- c. Tri-Partite Course: A considerable quantity of training material was released to the Overseas Branch by Mr. Dean [REDACTED] for retention. [REDACTED] had unsuccessfully attempted to get this material past the CI Staff and to a field station [REDACTED]. Included in this material are hand-outs, schedules, notes obtained at the 1952 Fort [REDACTED] course, to include several excellent photographs of the training installation. [REDACTED] is at present submitting a request for material more suitable for his training task [REDACTED].
- d. Bibliography on OSS: A US Army request for a bibliography of books on OSS was forwarded to the Overseas Branch by [REDACTED]. The bibliography is now being prepared with the basic work being accomplished by Mr. [REDACTED] of OTR Library.
- e. Comprehensive Problem: A copy of a newly-developed comprehensive intelligence processing problem to be used in testing [REDACTED] trainees in their Basic Course was sent to the Overseas Branch by [REDACTED] for comment and additional assistance. The memo in question has been discussed with [REDACTED], who helped Mr. [REDACTED] develop the problem. [REDACTED] has agreed to study the problem and write his comments.

3. TRAINING MATERIAL FORWARDED:

- a. FE [REDACTED]: In reply to his request, several training papers were released to [REDACTED], with the understanding that he would obtain CI Staff approval for their transmittal to the field.
- b. EE [REDACTED]: A copy of the sanitized comprehensive espionage bibliography was sent to the [REDACTED] at their request, for their Headquarters retention.
