On 5 January we spent the day looking over a safehouse, which [redacted] for possible use as a shooting location. Some of the rooms could probably be used which would save constructing about seven sets. We found that the premises could be made available to us on 24 hour's notice. Serious consideration will be given to using this facility.

Stock footage requirements for the film have been finalized and a request levied on Graphics Registry to search for it. These and other pre-production tasks will continue until such time as actual shooting commences.
