1. This week the following senior officers were briefed prior to next week's orientation:

During our debriefing of Messrs. [redacted] and [redacted], we were given their next assignments as Chief, Graphics Register, OCR, and Logistics Officer for Saigon.

2. [redacted] OCI, will attend a week's NORAD Orientation, beginning 25 July. From Colorado Springs he will go to Homestead AFB, Fla.; to Andrews AFB; to Dahlgren, Va.; to Andrews AFB; to McGuire AFB, N. J.; to Morristown, N. J.; to McGuire AFB, N. J.; to Otis AFB, Mass.; to Thule, Greenland; to Hall Beach, Canada; to North Bay, Canada; to Colorado Springs; to Washington, D. C. To the best of my knowledge, this is the first Agency employee who has been accepted for the NORAD Orientation. [redacted] (liaison officer with NORAD) made informal arrangements prior to our formal request. The climate appears more favorable as OCI has a new employee who worked for NORAD before his EOD.

4. Mr. [redacted] (Last mentioned in our Weekly Report of 11 June 1965) has after six months requested a waiver of his training agreement. [redacted] request, asked me if the Office of Training would take another look at the case because "they" didn't want to "take such a little thing to the Executive Director-Comptroller, who is obviously very busy in his new job." I told [redacted] that Mr. Baird cannot waive a training agreement. [redacted] persisted with "well what would happen if he just resigned and nobody said anything?" I answered that as a part of the Personnel clearance procedure, OTR is asked to clear exiting employees of any training obligations. We could not give a clearance without a waiver approved by the Executive Director, the DDCI, or the DCI.
