MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training
Chief, CI Staff

SUBJECT: Proposed Clandestine Services C.I.
[redacted] Training Course

REFERENCE: Memorandum for DD/P/TRO from Chief, CI/RSA, dated 8 December 1964, subject, Draft Proposal for Clandestine Services C.I. [redacted] Training Course

1. At the January 25, 1965 meeting of the Clandestine Services Training Board, the proposal contained in reference memorandum was considered. The Board approved the proposal in principle agreeing that such a training course should be initiated at the earliest date possible.

2. During discussion of the proposal the Board reached certain conclusions:

a. While recognizing that [redacted] is a basic C.I. tool, this skill is also necessary in other aspects of C.S. operations. The course content should reflect this fact.

b. The need for a capable officer to be assigned as Chief Instructor is paramount.

c. It is believed that the proposal to present this course six times during C.Y. 1965 to be overly ambitious. Addressees should plan on three runnings this year and increase the number later as feasible.

3. Addressees are requested to designate officers from their respective components to be responsible for the further development of this training course. The DD/P/TRO is prepared to assist.
