0845-0900 Introduction of DCI by Deputy Director

Talk by DCI

states purpose of, occasion for, need for the conference gives his ideas on primary responsibilities of supervisors concludes with "inspiration"--elite group, greater responsibilities, nothing less than the best, etc. (some praise appropriate but not so much as to obscure the fact that this reorientation was ordered because it was needed)

0900-0945 The Deputy Director (DDI, DDP, BDS&T) states his philosophy of supervision discusses the problems he sees in his directorate offers conclusions, suggestions, recommendations, orders

0945-1000 Break

1000-1100 The Deputy Director/Support and another speaker on stage at separate lecterns alternate in covering the following topics from texts prepared in the offices of concern:

management	finance
personnel	training
security	logistics (?)
medical

(if Col. White begins a topic, the other adds details; if the other begins, Col. White comments, adds personal opinion, illustrations)

1100-1115 Break

1115-1215 The Deputy Director/Support and other speaker continuation of above

1215- Lunch

1500-1630 The Panel: Messrs. Kirkpatrick, White, Baird, Bannerman, Echols, Fuchs, Tietjen each member introduced by Mr. Kirkpatrick each gives brief (2 min) statement (not "happy to be here", but why he is here and offering support of his office) each answers questions addressed to him and others on which he has competence and ideas, or adds comments to others' answers Mr. Kirkpatrick sums up at close
