SCOPE OF WORK:

The Contractor shall design and fabricate a prototype Advanced Stereo Rhomboid (Model II) in accordance with DEVELOPMENT OBJECTIVES, ADVANCED STEREO RHOMBOID PROTOTYPE MODEL II, dated 5 December 1966, and the Contractor's proposal, [ ] 7-1148B [ ] 7-1022), dated June 1967, which are incorporated herein by reference and made a part of this task order, subject to the following additions and deletions to the aforesaid DEVELOPMENT OBJECTIVES:

a. Under Sub-Section 3.3 add:

2x and 3x must be parfocal within 1mm.

1x must be parfocal within .8 inches from the 2x.

b. Sub-Section 3.4 is deleted in its entirety.

c. Under Sub-Section 3.5 add:

When the rhomboid assembly is installed and properly adjusted to the Zoom 70 or Zoom 240 Power Pod with which it will be used, the image of an object point located in the center of the eyepiece field of view will not move more than 1.0mm (as measured in the eyepiece focal plane) away from the center of the eyepiece field of view when the image rotation prism is rotated through 360° of prism rotation. This criteria will apply for all combinations of zoom settings and objective magnifications values.

d. Under Sub-Section 3.6 add:

The resolution of the [ ] Zoom 240 with an on axis resolution capability of at least 240 lp/mm, or the [ ] Zoom 70 with an on axis resolution capability of at least 150 lp/mm will not be decreased over any portion of the field-of-view when the Rhomboids with the 1x objectives are used. When the 2x stereo objectives are used the resolution at any point of the field will be double the values found in the 1x case. When using the 3x stereo objectives with the Zoom 70, the resolution values will be three times that found using the 1x objectives and when used with the Zoom 240, the resolution values will be 2.5 times the values found with the 1x objectives.

The light transmission characteristics of this prototype with its 2x objectives used on the Zoom 70 will be no less than 75% of the transmission values of the Zoom 70 with the standard 2x Wide Span Rhomboid attachments. In the binocular monoscopic mode the transmission shall be 40% of the stereoscopic values.
