TRATTENTION: CHROUGH: SUBJECT: Egyptian Naval Ship Alterations REFERENCE: NPIC Project No. 253002 1. In response to a recent telephone request from your Chief Petty Officer 12 annotated photographs of Egyptian naval ship alterations are enclosed for information and retention. 2. The photographs include the port and naval base facilities within the Alexandria Harbor Complex as well as the port facilities at Matruh. The photos are labeled and annotated according to area and ship type. Not all of the ships and craft annotated have undergone refit or alteration. 3. This project is considered complete. Questions regarding the project should be directed to USN, of the Middle East-Africa-Americas Branch (IEG/SGD), IDS Code 143, gray extension Acting Chief imagery Exploitation Group, NPIC Attachments: 1 Print 11 Briefing Boards Cy 1) Declass Review by NIMA/DOD	ATTENTION: THROUGH: SUBJECT: Egyptian Naval Ship Alterations REFERENCE: NPIC Project No. 253002 1. In response to a recent telephone request from your Chief Petty Officer 12 annotated photographs of Egyptian naval ship alterations are enclosed for information and retention. 2. The photographs include the port and naval base facilities within the Alexandria Harbor Complex as well as the port facilities at Matruh. The photos are labeled and annotated according to area and ship type. Not all of the ships and craft annotated have undergone refit or alteration. 3. This project is considered complete. Ouestions regarding the project should be directed to USN, of the Middle East-Africa-Americas Branch (IEG/SGD), IDS Code 143, gray extension Cy 1) Declass Review by NIMA/DOD WARNING NOTICE Sentitive Itselfigence Sources and Methods Involved.	Approved Fo	Release 290312/19/19/19/19/19/19/19/19/19/19/19/19/19/	2
ATTENTION: THROUGH: SUBJECT: Egyptian Naval Ship Alterations REFERENCE: NPIC Project No. 253002 1. In response to a recent telephone request from your Chief Petty Officer 12 annotated photographs of Egyptian naval ship alterations are enclosed for information and retention. 2. The photographs include the port and naval base facilities within the Alexandria Harbor Complex as well as the port facilities at Matruh. The photos are labeled and annotated according to area and ship type. Not all of the ships and craft annotated have undergone refit or alteration. 3. This project is considered complete. Questions regarding the project should be directed to USN, of the Middle East-Africa-Americas Branch (IEG/SGD), IDS Code 143, gray extension Acting Chief Imagery Exploitation Group, NPIC Attachments: 1 Print 11 Briefing Boards Declass Review by NIMA/DOD WARNING NOTICE Standble Includents and Methods Involved.	ATTENTION: THROUGH: SUBJECT: Egyptian Naval Ship Alterations REFERENCE: NPIC Project No. 253002 1. In response to a recent telephone request from your Chief Petty Officer 12 annotated photographs of Egyptian naval ship alterations are enclosed for information and retention. 2. The photographs include the port and naval base facilities within the Alexandria Harbor Complex as well as the port facilities at Matruh. The photos are labeled and annotated according to area and ship type. Not all of the ships and craft annotated have undergone refit or alteration. 3. This project is considered complete. Ouestions regarding the project should be directed to USN, of the Middle East-Africa-Americas Branch (IEG/SGD), IDS Code 143, gray extension Cy 1) Declass Review by NIMA/DOD WARNING NOTICE Sentitive Itselfigence Sources and Methods Involved.	MORANDUM FOR	TCO/NSA (V24)
THROUGH: SUBJECT: Egyptian Naval Ship Alterations REFERENCE: NPIC Project No. 253002 1. In response to a recent telephone request from your Chief Petty Officer 12 annotated photographs of Egyptian naval ship alterations are enclosed for information and retention. 2. The photographs include the port and naval base facilities within the Alexandria Harbor Complex as well as the port facilities at Matruh. The photos are labeled and annotated according to area and ship type. Not all of the ships and craft annotated have undergone refit or alteration. 3. This project is considered complete. Ouestions regarding the project should be directed to USN, of the Middle East-Africa-Americas Branch (IEG/SGD), IDS Code 143, gray extension Acting Chief Imagery Exploitation Group, NPIC Attachments: 1 Print 11 Briefing Boards Cy 1) Declass Review by NIMA/DOD WARNING NOTICE Sentitive Incelligence Sources and Methods Involved.	THROUGH: SUBJECT: Egyptian Naval Ship Alterations REFERENCE: NPIC Project No. 253002 1. In response to a recent telephone request from your Chief Petty Officer 12 annotated photographs of Egyptian naval ship alterations are enclosed for information and retention. 2. The photographs include the port and naval base facilities within the Alexandria Harbor Complex as well as the port facilities at Matruh. The photos are labeled and annotated according to area and ship type. Not all of the ships and craft annotated have undergone refit or alteration. 3. This project is considered complete. Ouestions regarding the project should be directed to USN, of the Middle East-Africa-Americas Branch (IEG/SGD), IDS Code 143, gray extension Acting Chief magery Exploitation Group, NPIC Attachments: 1 Print 11 Briefing Boards Cy 1) Declass Review by NIMA/DOD	TENTION	LOAN CODY	,
SUBJECT: Egyptian Naval Ship Alterations REFERENCE: NPIC Project No. 253002 1. In response to a recent telephone request from your Chief Petty Officer	REFERENCE : NPIC Project No. 253002 1. In response to a recent telephone request from your Chief Petty Officer 12 annotated photographs of Egyptian naval ship alterations are enclosed for information and retention. 2. The photographs include the port and naval base facilities within the Alexandria Harbor Complex as well as the port facilities at Matruh. The photos are labeled and annotated according to area and ship type. Not all of the ships and craft annotated have undergone refit or alteration. 3. This project is considered complete. Questions regarding the project should be directed to USN, of the Middle East-Africa-Americas Branch (IEG/SGD), IDS Code 143, gray extension Acting Chief Imagery Exploitation Group, NPIC Attachments: 1 Print 11 Briefing Boards Cy 1)	IROUGH	TEIURN TO F	CD
1. In response to a recent telephone request from your Chief Petty Officer 12 annotated photographs of Egyptian naval ship alterations are enclosed for information and retention. 2. The photographs include the port and naval base facilities within the Alexandria Harbor Complex as well as the port facilities at Matruh. The photos are labeled and annotated according to area and ship type. Not all of the ships and craft annotated have undergone refit or alteration. 3. This project is considered complete. Questions regarding the project should be directed to USN, of the Middle East-Africa-Americas Branch (IEG/SGD), IDS Code 143, gray extension Acting Chief Imagery Exploitation Group, NPIC Attachments: 1 Print 11 Briefing Boards Cy 1) Declass Review by NIMA/DOD	1. In response to a recent telephone request from your Chief Petty Officer 12 annotated photographs of Egyptian naval ship alterations are enclosed for information and retention. 2. The photographs include the port and naval base facilities within the Alexandria Harbor Complex as well as the port facilities at Matruh. The photos are labeled and annotated according to area and ship type. Not all of the ships and craft annotated have undergone refit or alteration. 3. This project is considered complete. Ouestions regarding the project should be directed to USN, of the Middle East-Africa-Americas Branch (IEG/SGD), IDS Code 143, gray extension Acting Chief magery Exploitation Group, NPIC Attachments: 1 Print 11 Briefing Boards Cy 1) Declass Review by NIMA/DOD	JBJECT
Chief Petty Officer 12 annotated photographs of Egyptian naval ship alterations are enclosed for information and retention. 2. The photographs include the port and naval base facilities within the Alexandria Harbor Complex as well as the port facilities at Matruh. The photos are labeled and annotated according to area and ship type. Not all of the ships and craft annotated have undergone refit or alteration. 3. This project is considered complete. Questions regarding the project should be directed to USN, of the Middle East-Africa-Americas Branch (IEG/SGD), IDS Code 143, gray extension Acting Chief magery Exploitation Group, NPIC Attachments: 1 Print 11 Briefing Boards Cy 1) Declass Review by NIMA/DOD	Chief Petty Officer 12 annotated photographs of Egyptian naval ship alterations are enclosed for information and retention. 2. The photographs include the port and naval base facilities within the Alexandria Harbor Complex as well as the port facilities at Matruh. The photos are labeled and annotated according to area and ship type. Not all of the ships and craft annotated have undergone refit or alteration. 3. This project is considered complete. Questions regarding the project should be directed to USN, of the Middle East-Africa-Americas Branch (IEG/SGD), IDS Code 143, gray extension Acting Chief magery Exploitation Group, NPIC Attachments: 1 Print 11 Briefing Boards Cy 1) Declass Review by NIMA/DOD VARNING NOTICE Sensitive Intelligence Sources and Methods Involved.	FERENCE	NPIC Project No. 253002
1 Print 11 Briefing Boards Cy 1) Declass Review by NIMA/DOD WARNING NOTICE Sensitive Intelligence Sources and Methods Involved.	1 Print 11 Briefing Boards Cy 1) Declass Review by NIMA/DOD WARNING NOTICE Sensitive Intelligence Sources and Methods Involved.	nnotated accordings and craft 3. This egarding the SN, of the Mi	ding to area and ship type. Not all of the annotated have undergone refit or alteration. roject is considered complete. Questions roject should be directed to die East-Africa-Americas Branch (IEG/SGD), ray extension Acting Chief	2! 2!
NIMA/DOD Sensitive Intelligence Sources and Methods Involved.	NIMA/DOD Sensitive Intelligence Sources and Methods Involved. CLASSIFIED BY: 013170	1 Print		;
CLASSIFIED BY: 013170			NIMA/DOD Sensitive Intelligence Sources of E.O. 11652, Exemption Category: 5B(2)		npt from General Declassification		2

25X1