INTRODUCTION

2. The 118th Infantry Division is one of three infantry divisions subordinate to the 40th Army and is on the western fringe and to the south of I-hsien. The division consists of a headquarters area, three infantry regiments, an artillery regiment, and a tank regiment.

BASIC DESCRIPTION

3. Table 1 lists the units of the 118th Infantry Division with their installation names, BE numbers, COMIREX numbers, and geographic coordinates. The installations listed below are keyed to Figures 1 and 2.

I-hsien Army Barracks and Headquarters AL 1

4. This infantry division headquarters (area A) is 1 nautical mile (nm) west-southwest of I-hsien and houses the division headquarters elements, an AAA battalion, a probable artillery battalion, a river-crossing company, and a tank regiment. Also included with this facility is a tank dispersal and training area, and an ammunition storage area.

5. The headquarters area consists of one E-shaped headquarters building, one C-shaped administration building, 47 barracks, nine messhalls, one auditorium, two furnace buildings, one multiwinged hospital, nine vehicle sheds, two vehicle maintenance buildings, ten ammunition storage buildings, a small-arms firing range, and numerous storage/support buildings.

6. The tank regiment area consists of one C-shaped administration building, 13 barracks, one large H-shaped messhall, one auditorium, three furnace buildings, five tracked-vehicle storage buildings, six wheeled-vehicle storage buildings, two vehicle maintenance buildings, four service racks, a subcaliber firing range, and numerous storage/support buildings.

7. The tank dispersal and training area is west of the installation and consists of a very large tracked-vehicle driver training course, 11 vehicle sheds, 18 barracks/quarters, six messhalls, one probable auditorium, seven buildings under construction, one subcaliber firing range, and one tank firing loop with a moving target run.

8. The separately fence-secured ammunition storage area consists of 14 ammunition storage buildings, five support buildings, and at least one adit.
