Reimbursement of Prospective Employees for Medical Examinations

1. Attached hereto is a proposed draft of a letter to the Comptroller General of the United States requesting a decision as to whether this Agency has the authority to reimburse certain prospective employees for expenses incurred in securing medical examinations from private physicians incident to determining their physical eligibility for appointment to duty.

2. It is recommended that this query be formally presented for a decision unless you feel that the point can be clarified by informal discussions with the General Accounting Office.
