12. The task of establishing fixed allowances and payments which are realistic and meaningful in terms of cost and cover yet not gratuitous to the employee has proved both formidable and time-consuming. However, we feel that in the review and settlement of the seventeen cases we have processed to date, we have been able to develop working principles and procedures which will be applicable to and will expedite the processing of all future cases.

13. With your approval, the Committee proposes to accelerate the program by codifying the established rules and by putting out an Agency notice which will not only inform the various components of the existence and purpose of the Committee but will also direct them to place all career and staff agents going overseas under the Committee. The Committee will also consider the possibility of an overseas trip by part of the Committee to either establish rates or obtain some feedback.
