STATINTL

Dear [Redacted]

Thank you for your full and complete answer to my letter of November 11. I quite appreciate the amount of time and trouble answering such a letter requires.

It was, however, a CIAIT employee who said the phone was tapped. After receiving your letter, I except the fact that he was lying. I suspected that which is why I felt it necessary to find out what she might be in regards which was untrue but which might affect me in unexpected ways. I'm glad to know that there is only the information normally found on employee records. I'm also glad to know that the medical material is available should I ever need it.

Thank you again.
