1. While visiting the Director of the Budget Mr. Frederick J. Lawton yesterday, General Smith left with him a copy, Number 5, of the National Intelligence Digest. At Mr. Amory's request, I visited Mr. Lawton today and had him sign a receipt for this document. I also inserted in his book the page cautioning that the material is highly sensitive. ✓

25X1A2g 3. [redacted] called to find out the procedure in advising an office of a PRC action; he was referring particularly to [redacted] 25X1A2g and [redacted] of interest to ADO. I found that normally the Deputy concerned receives two copies of the record of action paper, one for his own file and one for dispatch to the office. I am having the paper in question copied and sent to ADO (ER 3-4457).
