DIARY
Executive Officer, DD/I

Monday, 22 December 1952

1. It was decided that no really useful purpose would be served 25X1A9a by my trip to New York to meet [redacted] and plans were cancelled. However, 25X1A9a we requested [redacted] to assure that [redacted] call us as soon as possible after he docks.

2. [redacted] has been loaned by DD/P to Mr.
John Foster Dulles and is presently in New York. I received a call 25X1A9a from [redacted] indicating that General Smith had indicated that he 25X1A9a might want [redacted] to pass the O/CI daily publication to Mr. Dulles and therefore it would be necessary for [redacted] to have the Special 25X1A9a clearance. I checked with O/CI who, in turn, checked with I&S and am 25X1A9a informed that [redacted] is properly cleared and could be briefed at any time. I have arranged with Mr. Sheldon to have [redacted] 25X1A9a in New York should the General direct [redacted] handle the Special material 25X1A9a 25X1A9a and have informed [redacted] for the Director, the manner in which this is now set up.

3. Mr. Amory was host at Admiral Espe's luncheon and briefing, the latter being conducted by the Assistant Directors (see attached schedule).
A most unfortunate flap developed at luncheon in that [redacted] 25X1A9a wandered into the dining room and took Mr. Wisner's place at the table. By the time Mr. Wisner arrived, the table was full and he withdrew in some embarrassment.
As soon as I learned of this, I went to Mr. Wisner, who was eating sandwiches at his desk, and apologized for the embarrassment that had been caused him.
He was most understanding and realized that this was definitely not our fault. Rep later apologized in person also.

4. Attended Administration Building Christmas party. 25X1A9a 25X1A9a [redacted] secretary, O/CI, very kindly came up and sat in the Director's Office to receive phone calls and thus release all of the people in this building to attend the party. Her kindness was very much appreciated.

3- Schedule being brought from o/ci.
