1. Gen. Partridge, acting pursuant to orders by Gen. Bradley, requested CIA's evaluation of the quality, quantity and timeliness of intelligence coverage of Bulgaria and Southern Roumania. Had a meeting of the IADs and requested a report from each office by 11 A.M. on Saturday. Also requested [redacted] to have O/SO make its contribution through O/CI, and later informed Mr. Sheldon that this would be done. Also spoke with Col. Cahill of Gen. Partridge's office, who had been advised by [redacted] of O/SO that that office would be unable to make an independent contribution; a conclusion with which I agreed.

7. Conferred with Drs. Chadwell and [REDACTED] respecting the project to use guided missiles for photographic reconnaissance. I recommended that the staff paper be rewritten to include a letter from Gen. Smith to Gen. Bradley, requesting consideration of feasibility; that operational material be deleted; and that the matter be coordinated with DD/P before presentation to DCI. This will be done.

8. Dr. Andrews spoke to me about the status of the memorandum relating to reorganization of the covert offices, which had been given to him on an "Eyes Only" basis. After checking with [REDACTED] I authorized Dr. Andrews to indicate to his people the proper names of the various new covert units and also authorized him to show the reorganization memorandum to an extremely limited group of his senior officials, such as [REDACTED] etc. 25X1A9a

9. Attended a meeting by [REDACTED] and Gen. Samford respecting the net evaluation of Soviet capability to damage U.S. Gen. Samford outlined an alternate plan which he had for the development of this evaluation and requested me to check with Gen. Smith respecting the timing of the report to the NSC.

10. Mr. Sheldon called my attention to the fact that [REDACTED] name did not appear on the list of members of the ad hoc P/T Committee and, after phoning Adm. Wenger I discovered that this had been an oversight. I so informed Mr. Polyzoides. 25X1A9a

11. Discussed office space in Admin. Bldg. with Col. White and advised him that this office desired one additional room.
