Attended consultants' meeting respecting various [REDACTED]
I indicated on behalf of CIA that a number of these papers were in very preliminary state and would be greatly improved if an indication of the weight and quantum of sources for the various portions was given. Inquiry was made as to the Agency's attitude toward publication by a commercial publisher of the studies on the dynamics of Soviet society and the type of portraites (factory manager, etc.) I indicated that this was the first time that I had heard of any such proposal and that there were many serious questions to be considered. I could not even give a tentative view until I had discussed this proposal with Messrs. Dulles and Wisner.
