Attention: [REDACTED]
Secretary, [REDACTED] Committee

Dear Admiral Hillenkoetter:

25X1A9a

With reference to [REDACTED] letter, dated September 12, 1949, regarding a list of projects on international Communism - finished, in process or planned -, I desire to advise you of the following projects which have been completed and disseminated to interested intelligence agencies by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The list in question is as follows:

Basic Ideas of Communist Philosophy - October 4, 1947
Bibliography of Books on Communism;
Communism - The Present Threat to United States Welfare
(Revised Version out under date of September 15, 1949);
Summary of the 1948 Election Platform of The Communist Party;
Communist Party, USA - Origins, Developments, Trends -
July 24, 1949;
Principles, Aims and Tactics of The Communist Party in the Third Party Movement;
Definitions of Socialism;
Four Current Courses of Action American Communists Will Use
To Oppose Fascism - December 5, 1947
Glossary of Marxist Words and Phrases, Volumes I, II and III;
Marxist Scientific Socialism (Communism) - April 15, 1949

As mentioned above, the above projects have already been disseminated to the various intelligence agencies, including the Central Intelligence Agency. The projects in question will, therefore, be available to each of the Committee members in his own agency. If desired, you will be kept advised in the future of research projects being disseminated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Sincerely yours,

/s/
