4. The Committee will meet frequently in order to maintain the fullest exchange of available information and trends on International Communism; to prepare and maintain a program for production; to clarify areas of production and collection functions in cases where the allocations of these responsibilities under existing directives are not definite; to resolve problems regarding priorities for production; to keep the interested agencies informed of work in progress; and to avoid duplication, unnecessary overlap, and lack of coverage.

5. Allocations for production will follow the dominant interests established in NSCID No. 3 and DCI 3/1, with such supplemental services as should be rendered by the FBI due to its responsibilities in the domestic field. No portion of this agreement is intended to apply to the coordination of domestic intelligence which is handled pursuant to the provisions of NSC 17/4. The FBI is a member of the Permanent Committee for International Communism for the purpose of coordinating domestic with foreign intelligence.

25X1A2d 6. When the [redacted] Committee discovers that there are gaps in or unnecessary duplication of coverage or conflicting priorities, or when the established allocations of work are overlapping or not clearly defined,

25X1A2d0010 the [redacted] Committee will resolve the problem in so far as is possible in each case. If the problem cannot be resolved satisfactorily by the [redacted] Committee, it will be referred, with appropriate recommendations, to the DCI, for consideration by the IAC with FBI representation when appropriate. 25X1A2d
