

Page Denied

SECRET

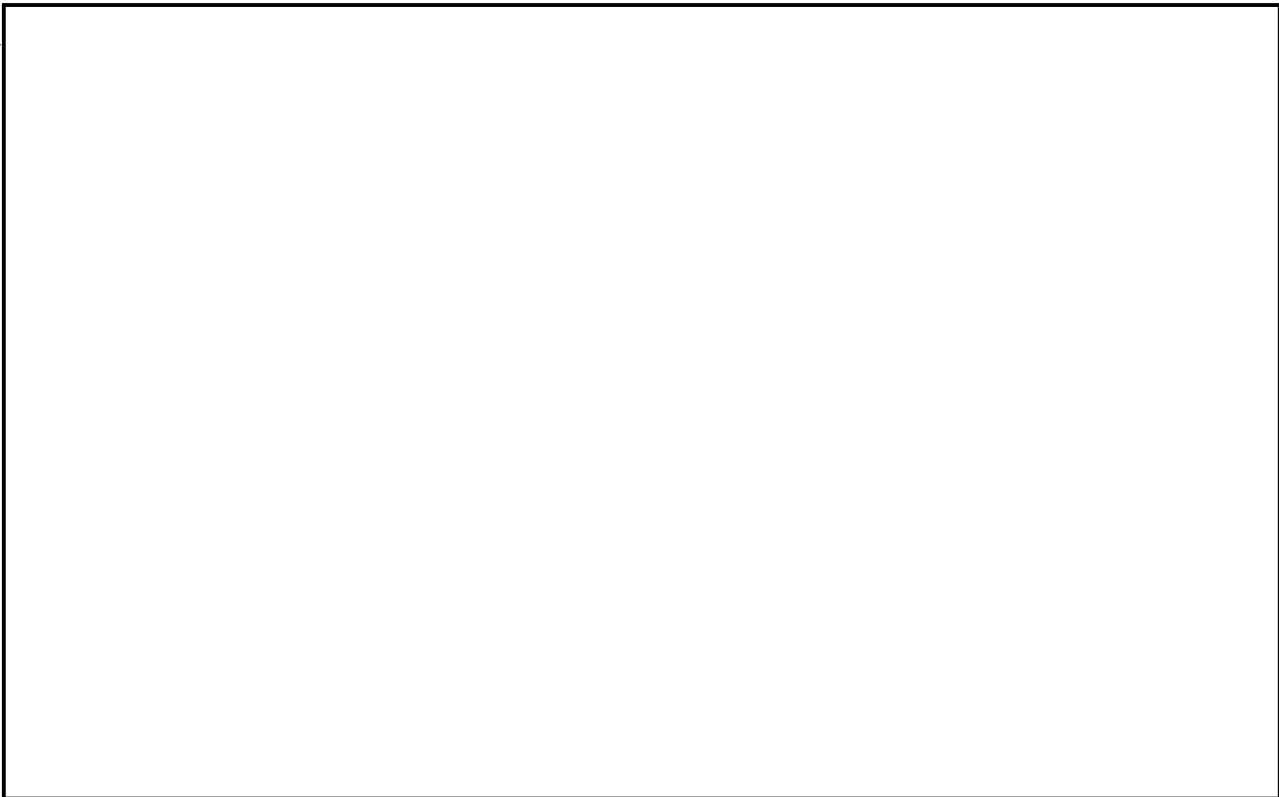

draft 15 April 75

THE IMPLICATIONS OF THE IRAN-IRAQ AGREEMENT

The Algiers Accord

1. The Shah of Iran and Iraqi strongman Saddam Husayn Tikriti signed an agreement on March 6 intended to resolve the differences which had produced border clashes during the past year. Both governments gained important advantages from the accord; Iraq's rebellious Kurds* were the big losers.

SECRET

Page Denied

Next 30 Page(s) In Document Denied