INTELLIGENCE MEMORANDUM

Situation in the Dominican Republic
(As of 0100)

1. As of 0100 we have received no information of a change in the tactical situation from an hour ago, when the rebels still held the initiative.

2. The latest report from Santo Domingo states that "carnage" is continuing within the city, with many wounded persons walking about. Mobile medical units have been requested at first light.

3. The OAS meeting is still in progress. At the outset Venezuela and Chile were reading formal notes to the Council. The Venezuelan note protested US unilateral action. The text of the Chilean note is not yet known, but Chilean President Frei

United States should not have acted unilaterally. He said the US could have invested the OAS with prestige by acting through it.

4. President Rivera of El Salvador, concerned over the alleged rebel firing on the Salvadoran Embassy in Santo Domingo has appealed for the assistance of US forces in evacuating Salvadorans.
