*Communist China - France: The Chinese Communists are stepping up pressure to bring about a break in relations between France and Nationalist China.

Peiping's official statement of 28 January declares flatly that it negotiated the agreement to establish relations with the French as the sole legal government of China. The statement argues that by recognizing Peiping the French agree that Taipei's diplomats in Paris can no longer be regarded as representing China. Peiping implies that agreement with Paris on recognition and the exchange of ambassadors was based on this understanding.

By harshly restating their claim to sovereignty over the island, the Chinese attempted to slam the door on the possibility that the French might try to evade the dilemma by recognizing the GRC as government of Taiwan.

Peiping's statement has been followed by an announcement carried by the semiofficial French news service AFP that the Chinese have named a chargé to fill the Paris post.
