NOTES

25X1

OAS: Latin American ambassadors to the Organization of American states have decided to draw up a list of grievances to present to President Nixon when he makes his projected visit to the OAS council. [redacted]

25X1

[redacted] the discussions of this plan were led by representatives of Brazil and Chile, strongly supported by Peru's Luis Alvarado, who attacked US economic policies affecting his country. [redacted]

25X1

the decision on this approach was not unanimous and that the ambassadors are annoyed with OAS Secretary General Galo for "appointing" himself as negotiator with the US Government. [redacted]
