то:	NAME AND AD	DUTING	DATE	INITIALS			Top Sec	ret
1	HAMIL AND AD	DILLUJ	DAIL	HALLIALS			Security Classif	ication)
2						,	Coccurity Diassii	19911911)
3
4		and the second	 		CON	NTROL NO.
A C	PPROVAL DIS		RECO!	IRE REPLY MMENDATION RN				25X
	ONCURRENCE INF IRKS:	FORMATION	SIGNA	TURE
								25X1
		Access	to this	s docume	nt will be re	stricted to those appro	oved fo	INTELL	IGENCE DA	cific activiti
		those appro	oved fo	INTELL	IGENCE DA	cific activiti	E
		those appro	oved fo	INTELL	IGENCE DA	cific activiti	E
		those appro	oved fo	INTELL	IGENCE DA	cific activiti	E
		those appro	oved fo	INTELL	IGENCE DA	cific activiti	E
		those appro	oved fo	INTELL	IGENCE DA	cific activiti	E
		those appro	oved fo	INTELL	IGENCE DA	cific activiti	E
		those appro	oved fo	INTELL	IGENCE DA	cific activiti	E
		those appro	oved fo	INTELL	IGENCE DA	cific activiti	E
		those appro	oved fo	INTELL	IGENCE DA	cific activiti	E
		those appro	oved fo	INTELL	IGENCE DA	cific activiti	E
Sta	ate Dept. review	those appro	oved fo	INTELL	IGENCE DA	cific activiti	E
	ate Dept. review	those appro	oved fo	INTELL	IGENCE DA	cific activiti	E

National Intelligence Daily Cable for Tuesday November 16, 1976.	7
The NID Cable is for the purpose of informing senior US officials.	[⊥] 25X1 25X1

CONTENTS

CHINA: Soviet Gestures	Page 1
		25X1
SAUDI ARABIA: Views of King Khalid	Page 3
LEBANON: Situation Report	Page 4
IRAQ: Problems in the Military	Page 4
SAUDI ARABIA: Western Sahara Dispute	Page 6
		25X1
CHINA: Earthquake	Page 7
		25X1
PORTUGAL: PCP Congress	Page 9	-
FRANCE: Defense Budget	Page 10
		25X1

CHINA: Soviet Gestures
The Chinese have publicly and authoritatively rebutted speculation that they might respond positively to recent Soviet gestures toward Peking.	25X1
At a banquet last night honoring visiting Central African Republic President Bokassa, Vice Premier Li Hsien-nien lambasted the Soviets in such uncompromising terms that diplomats from the USSR and its East European allies walked out of the hall. The Soviet diplomats departed during Li's attack on "wildly ambitious" and "criminal" Soviet actions in Africa, a popular theme in Chinese propaganda for several months.	25X1
Had they stayed longer, the Soviet officials would have heard Li, who is likely to become premier soon, accuse the Soviets of creating "false impressions" about a relaxation in relations between the two countries. Li asserted that Moscow's "arrogant demands" that China change its policy were wishful thinking and said that the Chinese would continue to carry out Chairman Mao's "revolutionary line in foreign affairs," a euphemism for China's opening to the US.	25X1
Chinese officials seem to recognize that the USSR has had some success in portraying its initiatives since the death of Mao Tse-tung two months ago as serious efforts to reconcile differences. The Chinese have been asserting privately that these gestures are not genuinely conciliatory, and Li's remarks are almost certainly intended to dispel widespread foreign press speculation regarding the possibility of a thaw in Sino-Soviet relations.	25X1
Since Mao's death, Chinese propaganda has remained vociferously anti-Soviet. Given the foreign press speculation about possible relaxation in relations with the Soviets, however, the Chinese apparently believed it was necessary to address the subject of the Soviet overture directly and in a manner designed to put this speculation to rest.	25X1
It is likely that Peking does not find much that is new in current Soviet blandishments. In any event, the Chinese	25X1

1

Approved For F	(elease 2008/07/01	1 : CIA-RDP/91009	975A029500010028-4	• 2
ro almost certai	nly disincli	ned to consid	er seriously the	sensi-
ive issue of rel	lations with	the USSR whil	e they are still	busy
utting their dor he attitudes of	mestic house	in order and Aministration	before they can a	assess2
ne accircaces or	CHC HOW OD CA
				2
		2
				2

Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Saud, as a signal to the US president-elect that Saudi Arabia wishes to pursue a close, co-poperative relationship with the US.// //The foreign minister added that his government would like to work closely with the US in finding a Middle East settlement and was thinking in terms of a long-term petroleum agreement and price freeze in return for a Middle East deal. Prince Saud did not expand his remarks but undoubtedly was aware that they would be passed on to US officials.// //King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign policy positions. According to the Saudi-approved transcript of the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence" between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. The Palestinians are accorded self-determination.// //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long Arnaud de Borchgrave of King Khalid //Saudi King Khalid's interview last week with Arnaud de Borchgrave of Neusweek was intended, according to Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Saud, as a signal to the US president-elect that Saudi Arabia wishes to pursue a close, co-operative relationship with the US.// //The foreign minister added that his government would like to work closely with the US in finding a Middle East settlement and was thinking in terms of a long-term petroleum agreement and price freeze in return for a Middle East deal. Prince Saud did not expand his remarks but undoubtedly was aware that they would be passed on to US officials.// //King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign policy positions. According to the Saudi-approved transcript of the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence" between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."
Arnaud de Borchgrave of King Khalid //Saudi King Khalid's interview last week with Arnaud de Borchgrave of Neusweek was intended, according to Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Saud, as a signal to the US president-elect that Saudi Arabia wishes to pursue a close, co-operative relationship with the US.// //The foreign minister added that his government would like to work closely with the US in finding a Middle East settlement and was thinking in terms of a long-term petroleum agreement and price freeze in return for a Middle East deal. Prince Saud did not expand his remarks but undoubtedly was aware that they would be passed on to US officials.// //King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign policy positions. According to the Saudi-approved transcript of the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence" between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."		253
//Saudi King Khalid's interview last week with Arnaud de Borchgrave of Newsweek was intended, according to Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Saud, as a signal to the US president-elect that Saudi Arabia wishes to pursue a close, co-perative relationship with the US.// //The foreign minister added that his government would like to work closely with the US in finding a Middle East settlement and was thinking in terms of a long-term petroleum agreement and price freeze in return for a Middle East deal. Prince Saud did not expand his remarks but undoubtedly was aware that they would be passed on to US officials.// //King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign policy positions. According to the Saudi-approved transcript of the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence" between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."		2.02
//Saudi King Khalid's interview last week with Arnaud de Borchgrave of Newsweek was intended, according to Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Saud, as a signal to the US president-elect that Saudi Arabia wishes to pursue a close, co-perative relationship with the US.// //The foreign minister added that his government would like to work closely with the US in finding a Middle East settlement and was thinking in terms of a long-term petroleum agreement and price freeze in return for a Middle East deal. Prince Saud did not expand his remarks but undoubtedly was aware that they would be passed on to US officials.// //King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign policy positions. According to the Saudi-approved transcript of the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence" between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."
//Saudi King Khalid's interview last week with Arnaud de Borchgrave of Newsweek was intended, according to Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Saud, as a signal to the US president-elect that Saudi Arabia wishes to pursue a close, co-perative relationship with the US.// //The foreign minister added that his government would like to work closely with the US in finding a Middle East settlement and was thinking in terms of a long-term petroleum agreement and price freeze in return for a Middle East deal. Prince Saud did not expand his remarks but undoubtedly was aware that they would be passed on to US officials.// //King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign policy positions. According to the Saudi-approved transcript of the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence" between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."
//Saudi King Khalid's interview last week with Arnaud de Borchgrave of Newsweek was intended, according to Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Saud, as a signal to the US president-elect that Saudi Arabia wishes to pursue a close, co-perative relationship with the US.// //The foreign minister added that his government would like to work closely with the US in finding a Middle East settlement and was thinking in terms of a long-term petroleum agreement and price freeze in return for a Middle East deal. Prince Saud did not expand his remarks but undoubtedly was aware that they would be passed on to US officials.// //King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign policy positions. According to the Saudi-approved transcript of the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence" between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."
//Saudi King Khalid's interview last week with Arnaud de Borchgrave of Newsweek was intended, according to Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Saud, as a signal to the US president-elect that Saudi Arabia wishes to pursue a close, co-perative relationship with the US.// //The foreign minister added that his government would like to work closely with the US in finding a Middle East settlement and was thinking in terms of a long-term petroleum agreement and price freeze in return for a Middle East deal. Prince Saud did not expand his remarks but undoubtedly was aware that they would be passed on to US officials.// //King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign policy positions. According to the Saudi-approved transcript of the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence" between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."
//Saudi King Khalid's interview last week with Arnaud de Borchgrave of Newsweek was intended, according to Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Saud, as a signal to the US president-elect that Saudi Arabia wishes to pursue a close, co-perative relationship with the US.// //The foreign minister added that his government would like to work closely with the US in finding a Middle East settlement and was thinking in terms of a long-term petroleum agreement and price freeze in return for a Middle East deal. Prince Saud did not expand his remarks but undoubtedly was aware that they would be passed on to US officials.// //King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign policy positions. According to the Saudi-approved transcript of the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence" between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."
//Saudi King Khalid's interview last week with Arnaud de Borchgrave of Newsweek was intended, according to Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Saud, as a signal to the US president-elect that Saudi Arabia wishes to pursue a close, co-perative relationship with the US.// //The foreign minister added that his government would like to work closely with the US in finding a Middle East settlement and was thinking in terms of a long-term petroleum agreement and price freeze in return for a Middle East deal. Prince Saud did not expand his remarks but undoubtedly was aware that they would be passed on to US officials.// //King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign policy positions. According to the Saudi-approved transcript of the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence" between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."
Arnaud de Borchgrave of Newsweek was intended, according to Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Saud, as a signal to the US president-elect that Saudi Arabia wishes to pursue a close, co-perative relationship with the US.// //The foreign minister added that his government would like to work closely with the US in finding a Middle East settlement and was thinking in terms of a long-term petroleum agreement and price freeze in return for a Middle East deal. Prince Saud did not expand his remarks but undoubtedly was aware that they would be passed on to US officials.// //King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign policy positions. According to the Saudi-approved transcript of the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence" between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain as it enjoys the support of "major powers."		257
president-elect that Saudi Arabia wishes to pursue a close, co- perative relationship with the US.// //The foreign minister added that his govern- ment would like to work closely with the US in finding a Mid- dle East settlement and was thinking in terms of a long-term petroleum agreement and price freeze in return for a Middle East deal. Prince Saud did not expand his remarks but undoubt- edly was aware that they would be passed on to US officials.// //King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign policy positions. According to the Saudi-approved transcript of the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence" between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. The Palestinians are accorded self-determination.// //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."	Arnaud de Borchgrave of Newsweek was intended, according to	202
//The foreign minister added that his government would like to work closely with the US in finding a Middle East settlement and was thinking in terms of a long-term petroleum agreement and price freeze in return for a Middle East deal. Prince Saud did not expand his remarks but undoubtedly was aware that they would be passed on to US officials.// //King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign policy positions. According to the Saudi-approved transcript of the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence" between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. The Palestinians are accorded self-determination.// //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."	president-elect that Saudi Arabia wishes to pursue a close, coment would like to work closely with the US in finding a Middle East settlement and was thinking in terms of a long-term petroleum agreement and price freeze in return for a Middle East deal. Prince Saud did not expand his remarks but undoubtedly was aware that they would be passed on to US officials.// //King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign policy positions. According to the Saudi-approved transcript of the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence" between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. The Palestinians are accorded self-determination.// //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain as it enjoys the support of "major powers."		25)
petroleum agreement and price freeze in return for a Middle East deal. Prince Saud did not expand his remarks but undoubt- edly was aware that they would be passed on to US officials.// //King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign policy positions. According to the Saudi-approved transcript of the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence" between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. The Palestinians are accorded self-determination.// //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain as it enjoys the support of "major powers."	mont would like to work closely with the US in finding a Mid-	202
East deal. Prince Saud did not expand his remarks but undoubtedly was aware that they would be passed on to US officials.// //King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign policy positions. According to the Saudi-approved transcript of the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence" between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. The Palestinians are accorded self-determination.// //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."	dle East settlement and was thinking in terms of a long-term
//King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign policy positions. According to the Saudi-approved transcript of the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence" between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. The Palestinians are accorded self-determination.// //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."	Each doal Prince Saud did not expand his remarks but undoubt-
the interview, he took the line that "peaceful coexistence between the Arabs and Israel is possible if: Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. The Palestinians are accorded self-determination.// //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain as it enjoys the support of "major powers."	//King Khalid adhered to standard Saudi foreign	252
Israel withdraws from the occupied Arab territories. The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. The Palestinians are accorded self-determination.// //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."	the interview, he took the line that peaceful coexistence
The legitimate rights of the Palestinian people are recognized. The Palestinians are accorded self-determination.// //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."	· recognized. The Palestinians are accorded self-determination.// //In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."
//In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel, the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."	recognized.
the King said he feared Israel would remain "arrogant" as long as it enjoys the support of "major powers."	The Palestinians are accorded self-determination.//
as it enjoys the support of "major powers."	//In an obvious plea for US pressure on Israel,	252
	as it enjoys the support of "major powers."	252
		252
3	3
25		252

LEBANON: Situation Report
The predominantly Syrian peace-keeping forces took up most of their preassigned positions in the port and commercial districts of Beirut yesterday without serious incident, occupying the city's radio and television stations and main government buildings.	25X1
Other units have moved into the Shuf region as far as Dayr al Qamar and north on the Beirut-Tripoli coastal highway to Amshit, site of the Christian-controlled radio station.	25X1
The security force is planning to enter Tripoli next, possibly as early as tomorrow. The deployment of these forces thus far has gone smoothly, but the Lebanese commander al-Haji and his staff expect a resurgence of Palestinian subversion and terrorism in Beirut and elsewhere at some point. President Sarkis reportedly has already established tribunals for Beirut, Tripoli, Sidon, and Zahlah to try cases of political sabotage, kidnaping, and murder.	25X1
Palestinian leaders appear to be trying to focus attention once more on Israeli activities in southern Lebanon, presumably to try to make a case for retaining their heavy weapons. Palestinian and leftist press say that there were heavy clashes over the weekend near Rumaysh and Bint Jubayl and a battle at sea between Palestinian and Israeli boats off Sidon.	25X1
Fatah extremist Salah Khalaf asserted in a speech in Tyre on Sunday that fedayeen were entitled under the Cairo ac-	25X1
cords to continue their operations against the Israelis and to bear arms in the south. Another official said yesterday that the Palestinians were studying a plan to counter Israeli activities in southern Lebanon.	25X1
IRAQ: Problems in the Military
Iraq's unsuccessful effort to block Syria's Lebanon policy may be having repercussions in the Iraqi army.	25X1

		2
defected to Syria was asset week. They asset their will may be no more than	Four Iraqi non-commission were interviewed on telev serted that Iraqi soldien to serve in Lebanon. The n a staged Svrian attempt	vision in Damascus rs were being forced e defectors' complaint t to discredit the
Iraqi role in Lebai	non,
		2
//Тээр	q's difficulty in justif	ying its ineffectual policies toward Le gence of Syrian-in Iraq, which has ca ments to the area. about the increase could become more	banon and Syria is completed Kurdish guerril used the government to so The regime is trying to in Kurdish activity, a sensitive as news of Iramore widely known.//	icated by the resur- la activity in northern end military reinforce- suppress information political issue that regime are occurri power are being st of chronically ill strongman Saddam H	rnal and external distra ng at a time when discus imulated by the recent d President Bakr. Since 1 usayn has tried publicly hip, particularly in the	sions of transition of ecline in the health ate August, Iraqi to project an image area of the domestic economy. This effo	rt apparently is designe eparture from the politi	ed to brebare rradiz
-		2
	5
[-

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

SAUDT	ARABTA:	Western	Sahara	Dispute
OUCDI	T17C17 -111 *		Danara

As part of Saudi Arabia's increasingly active role in intra-Arab affairs, Crown Prince Fahd has been traveling in Morocco, Mauritania, and Algeria since Thursday in an effort to resolve the Western Sahara dispute.

Fahd has met with King Hassan and Mauritanian President Ould Daddah and arrived in Algeria yesterday to see President Boumediene. Fahd, who is accompanied by Foreign Minister Prince Saud, will remain in the area most of this week. If the discussions are encouraging, the three North African leaders will be invited to Saudi Arabia for an all-out effort to resolve the Western Sahara issue.

Saudi Foreign Ministry officials say that they have undertaken this diplomatic initiative because the success of the efforts of Saudi leaders with respect to Lebanon enables them to redirect their energies to North Africa, and because the Saudis allegedly believe that Algerian President Boumediene is now willing to find some solution.

In any event, we believe the prospects for a negotiated settlement soon are remote. According to the Saudi account, Boumediene recently indicated that a settlement should respect the views of all parties, including the Polisario Front guerrillas, who are seeking independence for the territory. The Moroccans are unlikely to engage in any negotiations that give the Front a significant role.

25X1

25X1 25X1

CHINA: Earthquake			•
The earthquake yourth China, which registe	yesterday in ered 6.5 on	the Tang-shan the Richter sc	area of ale, will

	25X1
	~
further complicate the massive reconstruction and underway in the Tang-shan area since late July. Tof the earthquake was 48 kilometers (30 miles) no Tang-shan.	he epicenter
/ /mln n n n n l h m n n	25X1
//The earthquake at Tang-shan on most severe in the world in this century, in term damage, registered 8.2 on the Richter scale. Befo the economically important Tang-shan area include industrial installations, which previously produc 10 percent of China's total industrial output.//	s of economic re that quake, d some 250
	25X1
	25X1
According to the US liaison office in Po	akina damaaa
According to the US liaison office in Perform yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and	eking, damage oparently is from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area application and no American casualties have been report	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reported foreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss.	eking, damage pparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area application and no American casualties have been report	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reportoreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reportoreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss	eking, damage pparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reported foreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss.	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reported foreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss.	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reportoreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reportoreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reportoreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reportoreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reportoreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reportoreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reportoreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reportoreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reportoreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reportoreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reported foreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss.	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reported foreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss.	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-
from yesterday's earthquake in the capital area and light, and no American casualties have been reported foreign Ministry has not yet given diplomatic miss.	eking, damage oparently is ted. The Chinese sions any in-

			25X1
PORTUGAL: PCP Congr	ress
ended on Sunday cor softening its pro-Marev praised the p	ress of the Portuguese Confirmed that the party has Moscow attitude. Soviet reparty's adherence to Moscon and Italian parties.	s no intention of epresentative Pono-	25X1
tral Committee may Italian parties, bu	the younger members of the favor the independent line it they are in no position Cunhal, who was unanimous dominated the four-day	ne of the French and n to challenge Portu- sly re-elected secre-	25X1
speakers criticized cating "anti-worker positions of influence	omestic front, Cunhal and d the Socialist minority or legislation and for pusence, but they neverthelestracy in Portugal depends rties.	government for advo- rging leftists from ss maintained that	25X1
	9
			25X1

the proposed budget large an effort to	the 58.4 billion franc budget. Oppone had earlier criticized it for devo- paying off last year's debts rather sture defense needs.//	ting too to purchase more Mi	1.3 billion francs will allow the a rage F-l aircraft, the army to buy the navy to complete construction of	French share of the budget their favored statu existing forces. Bo tinue on the navy's and the S-3 interme that by 1980, the S	nuclear programs did not receive as as they have in the past, but they as, with emphasis on improving the quarges told the Assembly that work we M-4 submarine launched ballistic mediate range ballistic missile. He as 3-3 will replace the 18 older S-2 mid to carry a one-megaton warhead to miles.//	retained uality of ill con- issile lso said ssiles.
//In a apparently will be The fourth SSBN prostruction on the finuclear submarine a	addition, the current French SSBN pr limited to five instead of six subm obably will enter service next year, ifth already is underway. France's s evidently will form the first of a n	marines. and con- sixth of attack submarine	35.	2381
		25X1
	11
		25X1

Approved For Release 2008/07/01: CIA-RDP79T00975A029500010028-4

Top Secret

(Security Classification)

Top Secret

(Security Classification)