EASTERN MEDICAL FACILITIES EXPANDED

VLADIVOSTOK HOSPITAL ENLARGED -- Krasnoye Znamya, No 119, 22 May 49

The Primorskiy Krai Hospital in Vladivostok has been given part of a 4-story building on Shevchenko Street into which the hospital office and several auxiliary divisions will be transferred. The space which they now occupy will be used to house a new division of the hospital to be opened in June. A second city children's hospital with 150 beds, 1 1/2 times larger than the hospital on Kitayskaya Street, will be organized in the building on Papanin Street. The children's hospital on Cape Churkin will be expanded at the same time.

NOVOSIBIRSK COMBATS MALARIA -- Sovetskaya Sibir', No 93, 13 May 49

The Antimalaria Station, Novosibirsk Oblast, will carry out antimalarial spraying by airplane from 20 May to 1 September 1949 in the Ob' River valley from Berdsk to Kolyvan'. Throughout the period, the station recommends that inhabitants take precautions in swimming in pools in the river valley, in watering domestic animals, and in turning animals and birds loose in the area. Apiaries will be moved 7 - 10 kilometers from the valley borders. For information, apply: Oblast Antimalaria Station, Central Polyclinic, 42 Serebrenikovskaya Street, Novosibirsk, and at local antimalaria stations.
