ASSOCIATION OF POLES IN GERMANY CHOOSES NEW ADMINISTRATION

A new administration of the Zwiasek Polakow w Niemczech (Association of Poles in Germany) [pro-Communist] was chosen on 13 August by delegates of the Polish colonies in Westphalia, Hamburg, and Hanover, as follows: St Paszkowiak, president; Pawlak, first vice-president; St. Tomczakowa, second vice-president; Khlczak, first secretary, Bregiel, second secretary, Filipiakowa, in charge of women's affairs.

The new administration pledged the following: (1) to extend its activities to all spheres of organization -- schools, women's clubs, youth organizations, singing societies, and sports clubs; (2) to establish efficient management in all the association's activities -- aid to the poor, the sick, and the aged; (3) to safeguard relations with the homeland, especially by organizing trips to Poland and vacations for children; (4) to observe democratic principles in directing the association and to treat all members on an equal basis for the good of the organization and its members.
