DISCUSS RUMANIAN EXILE GROUPS

At present, there are in Istanbul 35 Rumanian refugees, including Zorva, former consul, and Malioglu and Bibescu, former vice-consuls. Aurel Decei has been named representative for Turkey by the Rumanian National Committee, and he has in turn appointed Mircea Vasilescu to serve as his secretary and Constantino Abeles to aid him in his official duties.

The Rumanian National Committee has designated the following as official representatives for the organization: Professors Voniamin for France, Alex Stanescu for Belgium, Alex Totescu for Portugal, Captain Devas and Ion Economu for Brazil, Gregore Cugler for Peru, and Henry Helfant for Chile.

The president of the Rumanian National Committee in the American Zone of Germany is Gen Ion Gheorghe.

Two new exile groups have been organized in Paris. The first is the Franco-Rumanian Association, of which Anton Iader [French approximation of Rumanian name?] is president, and M. Rautu, former minister, vice president. Persons prominent in Rumanian and French political life participate in this association. The second is the Association of Rumanian Attorneys and Judges, organized by D. G. Serbanescu.
