HENG-YANG RAILWAY BUREAU REORGANIZED,
PLACED UNDER CANTON AND LIU-CHOU BUREAUS

Summary: By order of the Ministry of Railways, the Heng-yang Railway Bureau was reorganized and the areas formerly under its jurisdiction placed under the Canton and Liu-chou Railway Bureaus. Announcement was also made in early February 1953 that the Canton Railway Bureau commenced operations in new quarters in Canton in late January 1953.

REORGANIZATION OF HENG-YANG RAILWAY BUREAU -- Canton, Nan-fang Jih-pao, 11 Jan 53

The following public announcement was made by the Heng-yang Railway Bureau:

In accord with the orders of the Ministry of Railways of the Central People's Government, this railway bureau will be reorganized as of 1 January 1953 and its functions will be taken over by the Canton Railway Bureau and the Liu-chou Railway Bureau.

The Canton Railway Bureau will take over the jurisdiction of the territory extending north to the Ch'a-an-ling station on the Yueh-Han line, south to the Canton South station, east to the Liu-chia station on the Chekiang-Kiangsi line, and west to the Leng-shiu-t'an station on the Hsiang-Kuei line. The Canton Railway bureau will also exercise control over the following lines: the Canton-Shen-ch'uan line, the Nan-ch'ang-Chiu-chiang line, the Ch'uan-chiang-Kao-k'eng branch, the Hsiang-t'an branch, the Hsiang-Chiang branch, the Tzu-Hsu Branch [possibly Tzu-hsing-Hsu-chia-tung], the Pai-Yang branch, the Nan-ling branch, and the Huang-p'u branch.

Under the Canton Railway Bureau, there will be four subbureaus, each having its own delimited areas of jurisdiction as follows:

OLD HENG-YANG BUREAU OFFICE MOVED TO CANTON -- Canton, Nan-fang Jih-pao, 3 Feb 53

[The following appeared as a public notice in the above newspaper.]

CANTON RAILWAY BUREAU ANNOUNCEMENT

Kwang-kuan(53) tzu No 27, 26 January 1953

The establishment of this office having been officially approved, a portion of the Heng-yang Railway Bureau which heretofore has operated at Miao-p'u, Heng-yang, Hunan, has been ordered to move to new quarters at Tung-shan in Canton, Kwangtung, and from 2 February 1953 it will function as the Canton Railway Bureau. Four subbureaus for transportation, established 1 January 1953 at Canton, Heng-yang, Chu-chou, and Nan-ch'ang, will operate under this bureau at their respective locations. Hereafter, persons having business pertaining to railway traffic are requested to deal directly with these subbureaus.

In addition to notifying by letter all government agencies and others directly concerned in this matter, this announcement is published herewith for the information of the public.
