ACADEMY TO TRAIN MEMBERS
OF LOCAL COUNCILS IN HUNGARY

The Hungarian Council of Ministers has passed a resolution stating that a Tanacsakademia (Council Academy) must be established in Budapest for all members of the local councils. The Tanacsakademia is to give council members administrative, political, and economic training commensurate with the positions which they hold. Instruction will also be given by correspondence. Examinations will be given semiannually. The course will require 2 years for corresponding members. Members who have completed the course successfully will receive a diploma entitling them to enter a law school as second-year students.
