SOURCE Hsin-hua Jih-pao.CHINESE COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER SCORES ZIONIST MOVEMENT

[Comment: In its column headed "For the Reader's Guidance," under the title "Explanation of the Word 'Zionism'", the Nanking Hsin hua Jih-pao of 1 December 1952 discussed the meaning of Zionism. The explanation characterizes the movement as a tool of the reactionaries and advises the Jewish people in each country to join up with the "people's struggle against feudal, capitalist, and fascist slavery."

This is the first mention of Zionism in the Chinese Communist press available in FDD.

The article follows:

Jewish people in the capitalist, semicolonial, and colonial countries have been continually oppressed by reactionary governments. The best and the only way for the Jewish people to liberate themselves is to join the people's struggle in each country against feudal, capitalist, and fascist slavery, for freedom and democracy, and for the solution of racial problems under the principle of racial equality.

However, a group of Jewish capitalists is pushing the Zionist movement in each country and appealing to Jews to return to Palestine to establish their own nation. Most of the Jewish people have not been influenced nor have they shown enthusiasm toward this movement; in fact, some have already joined up with the people's struggle against reactionary feudal, capitalist, and fascist elements in each country.

Zionism is very much welcomed by the reactionary imperialists who are actively agitating and supporting the movement. Moreover, the Zionist group is a counterrevolutionary organization in the service of the imperialists.
