- 1. The County Office of Public Security (PUBP) is located at ulica Starogarnizka in Tczew. The County Office of Citizens' Militia (PUMO) is in the adjoining block. In the cellar of the PUBP building there are seven cells, each with a minimum capacity of 20 prisoners. The building also contains a flooded cell and a small room that is not large enough for the prisoner to turn around or sit down in; the latter are used for forcible interrogation of prisoners.
2. Because the PUBP jail was not large enough, the office took over the Tczew town jail, at ulica Debrowskiego. The latter is not large but can accommodate up to 200 inmates. It has 13 cells of varying capacity as well as detention and interrogation rooms. Political offenders occupy both jails.
3. The following are known PUBP functionaries in Tczew:

a) Commanding officer, Captain (fnu) Krawczyk, last seen in the summer of 1952.
