The Tudeh Party Central Committee proposed to the Bassar Committee that bassar merchants should "freeze" all cash receipts from their daily sales in order to keep rials out of circulation and thus aggravate the Government's rial shortage. 2. The Tudeh Party Central Committee also proposed at the same time that the Tudeh Party and the Bassar Committee should arrange a joint anti-dovernment demonstration and strike within the next 15 days. 25X1A Comments 1. According to a statement released to the Iranian press on 5 October 1953 by Minister of Finance Dr. All Amini, the Government lacks sufficient rials to supply current needs. Amini stated that despite the issuance of 3.12 billion rials by the Mossadeg Government there is now an acute note shortage, due to cashing holdings of Inadowners, smuggling, and the political situation which has caused wealthy merchants to maintain large stocks of notes. 2.
