CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

634257

INFORMATION REPORT

This Document contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States, within the meaning of Title 18, Sections 793 and 794, of the U.S. Code, as amended. Its transmission or revelation of its contents to or receipt by an unauthorized person is prohibited by law. The reproduction of this form is prohibited.

SECRET/CONTROL - U. S. OFFICIALS ONLY

NO. OF PAGES 1 REQUIREMENT NO. RD REFERENCES 25X This is UNEVALUATED Information The source evaluations in this report are definitive. The APPARIAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. THE APPARIAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KF SEE REVERSE) 1. Agitprop (Agitatsiya I Propaganda), headed by Todor Zhivkov who is a member of the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party, decides the policy of editorials and political articles to be printed in the press. It holds weekly meetings for this purpose with editors-in-chief of the important paperature, Otechestven Front, Rabotnichesko Deloz Zemedelsko Zhame, and Narodna Mladesh. On receiving the directives from Agitprop, each aditor-in-chief meets with the editors of his political sections (local and foreign) and with his economic editor, who is considered the equal of the political editors, to give them the basic line to be followed and the number of articles required for a certain time. 2. Each morning the editor-in-chief calls a meeting of his editors, who submit their material in accordance with the policy set at the weekly meetings. It is then decided finally what will appear in the following day's paper, and if any changes are required they must be entered before noon. In the afternoon the material is checked by a group of three to five censors, at least one of whom represents the Army. The news editors are the last to submit their material, 99 percent of which is copied from the bulletins of TASS (Soviet News Agency) and the Bülgarska Telegrafna Agentsiya (BTA) Bulgarian News Agency) 3. The head censor of Trud and Zemedelsko Zname is Krüstyu Stoychev He was returned to Agitprop in early 1953 and was appointed censor of the above papers.	OUNTRY		Bulgaria	3.			REPORT		25)
THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. 25 1. Agitprop (Agitatsiya I Propaganda), headed by Todor Zhivkov who is a member of the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party, decides the policy of editorials and political articles to be printed in the press. It holds weekly meetings for this purpose with editors-in-chief of the important papers-Trud, otchestven Front, Rabotnichesko Delo, Emedelsko Zname, and Narodna Miladozh. On receiving the directives from Agitprop, each editor-in-chief meets with the editors of his political sections (local and foreign) and with his economic editor, who is considered the equal of the political editors, to give them the basic line to be followed and the number of articles required for a certain time. 2. Each morning the editor-in-chief calls a meeting of his editors, who submit their material in accordance with the policy set at the weekly meetings. It is then decided finally what will appear in the following day's paper, and if any changes are required they must be entered before noon. In the afternoon the material is checked by a group of three to five censors, at least one of whom represents the Army. The news editors are the last to submit their material, 99 percent of which is copied from the bulletins of TASS (Soviet News Agency) and the Edigarska Telegarfan Reportelya (ETA) Bulgarian News Agency). 3. The head censor of Trud and Zemedelsko Zname is Krüstyu Stoychev He was returned to Agitprop in early 1953 and was appointed censor of the BDA responsible for the concentration of news from Yugoslavia. He is also the commentator on Yugoslav questions at Radio Sofia. Nissim Benbassat is one of the persons at the BTA Lupo Rosenstein is one of the persons at the BTA responsible for the concentration of news from Yugoslavia. He is also the commentator on Yugoslav questions at Radio Sofia. Nissim Benbassat is one of the persons at the BTA	BJECT		Publication of Articles in the Press			he Press	DATE DISTR. 18 May 1954
This is UNEVALUATED Information The source evaluations in this server are definitive. The Apparisal of content is tentative. (FOR KFT SEE REVERSE) 1. Agitprop (Agitatsiya I Propaganda), headed by Todor Zhivkov who is a member of the Central Committee of the Eulgarian Communist Party, decides the policy of editorials and political articles to be printed in the press. It holds weekly meetings for this purpose with editors-in-chief of the important paperature, Otechestven Front, Rabotnichesko Delo, Zemedelsko Tames, and Narodna Misdesh. On receiving the directives from Agitprop, each editor-in-chief meets with the editors of his political sections (local and foreign) and with his economic editor, who is considered the equal of the political editors, to give them the basic line to be followed and the number of articles required for a certain time. 2. Each morning the editor-in-chief calls a meeting of his editors, who submit their material in accordance with the policy set at the weekly meetings. It is then decided finally what will appear in the following day's paper, and if any changes are required they must be entered before noon. In the afternoon the material is checked by a group of three to five censors, at least one of whom represents the Army. The news editors are the last to submit their material, 99 percent of which is copied from the bulletins of TASS (Soviet News Agency) and the Bügareka Telegrafian Agentsiya (BTA; Bulgarian News Agency). 3. The head censor of Trud and Zemedelsko Zname is Krüstyu Stoychev 4. Lupo Rosenstein is one of the persons at the BTA responsible for the concentration of news from Yugoslavia. He is also the commentator on Yugoslav questions at Radio Sofia. Nissim Benbassat is one of the persons at the BTA 25.							NO. OF PAGES	ľ	•
The source evaluations in this report are definitive. 1. Agitprop (Agitatsiya I Propaganda), headed by Todor Zhivkov who is a member of the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party, decides the policy of editorials and political articles to be printed in the press. It holds weekly meetings for this purpose with editors-in-chief of the important papers-Trud, Otechestven Front, Rabotnichesko Delo, Zemedelsko Zname, and Narodna Mladesh. On receiving the directives from Agitprop, each editor-in-chief meets with the editors of his political sections (local and foreign) and with his economic editor, who is considered the equal of the political editors, to give them the basic line to be followed and the number of articles required for a certain time. 2. Each morning the editor-in-chief calls a meeting of his editors, who submit their material in accordance with the policy set at the weekly meetings. It is then decided finally what will appear in the following day's paper, and if any changes are required they must be entered before noon. In the afternoon the meterial is checked by a group of three to five censors, at least one of whom represents the Army. The news editors are the last to submit their material, 99 percent of which is copied from the bulletine of TASS (Soviet News Agency) and the Bulgarska Telegrafna Agentsiya (BTA; Bulgarian News Agency). 3. The head censor of Trud and Zemedelsko Zname is Krüstyu Stoychev Lupo Rosenstein is one of the persons at the BTA responsible for the concentration of news from Yugoslavia. He is also the commentator on Yugoslav questions at Radio Sofia. Nissim Benbassat is, one of the persons at the BTA Lupo Rosenstein is one of the persons at the BTA Lupo Rosenstein is one of the persons at the BTA Lupo Rosenstein is one of the persons at the BTA	ATE OF	INFO.					REQUIREMENT N	o. RD
1. Agitprop (Agitatsiya I Propaganda), headed by Todor Zhivkov who is a member of the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party, decides the policy of editorials and political articles to be printed in the press. It holds weekly meetings for this purpose with editors-in-chief of the important papers-trud, Otechestwon Front, Rabotnichesko Delo, Zemedelsko Zhame, and Narodna Madexh. On receiving the directives from Agitprop, each editor-in-chief meets with the editors of his political sections (local and foreign) and with his economic editor, who is considered the equal of the political editors, to give them the basic line to be followed and the number of articles required for a certain time. 2. Each morning the editor-in-chief calls a meeting of his editors, who submit their material in accordance with the policy set at the weekly meetings. It is then decided finally what will appear in the following day's paper, and if any changes are required they must be entered before noon. In the afternoon the material is checked by a group of three to five censors, at least one of whom represents the Army. The news editors are the last to submit their material, 99 percent of which is copied from the bulletins of TASS (Soviet News Agency) and the Bülgarska Telegrafus Agenteiya (BTA; Bulgarian News Agency). 3. The head censor of Trud and Zemedelsko Zname is Krüstyu Stoychev He was returned to Agitprop in early 1953 and was appointed censor of the above papers. 4. Lupo Rosenstein is one of the persons at the BTA responsible for the concentration of news from Yugoslavia. He is also the commentator on Yugoslav questions at Radio Sofia. Nissim Benbassat is, one of the persons at the BTA	ACE AC	QUIRED					REFERENCES		25 X ′
1. Agitprop (Agitatsiya I Propaganda), headed by Todor Zhivkov who is a member of the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party, decides the policy of editorials and political articles to be printed in the press. It holds weekly meetings for this purpose with editors-in-chief of the important papers-Trud, Otechestven Front, Rabotnichesko Delo, Zemedelsko Zname, and Marodna Mladosh. On receiving the directives from Agitprop, each editor-in-chief meets with the editors of his political sections (local and foreign) and with his economic editor, who is considered the equal of the political editors, to give them the basic line to be followed and the number of articles required for a certain time. 2. Each morning the editor-in-chief calls a meeting of his editors, who submit their material in accordance with the policy set at the weekly meetings. It is then decided finally what will appear in the following day's paper, and if any changes are required they must be entered before noon. In the afternoon the material is checked by a group of three to five censors, at least one of whom represents the Army. The news editors are the last to submit their material, 99 percent of which is copied from the bulletins of TASS (Soviet News Agency) and the Bülgarska Telegrafna Agentsiya (BTA; Bulgarian News Agency). 3. The head censor of Trud and Zemedelsko Zname is Krüstyu Stoychev He was returned to Agitprop in early 1953 and was appointed censor of the above papers. 25 4. Lupo Rosenstein is one of the persons at the BTA responsible for the concentration of news from Yugoslavia. He is also the commentator on Yugoslav questions at Radio Sofia. Nissim Benbassat is one of the persons at the BTA						This	s is UNEVALUATE	D Information
1. Agitprop (Agitatsiya I Propaganda), headed by Todor Zhivkov who is a member of the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party, decides the policy of editorials and political articles to be printed in the press. It holds weekly meetings for this purpose with editors-in-chief of the important papers-Trud, Otechestven Front, Rabotnichesko Delo, Zemedelsko Zname, and Marodna Mladosh. On receiving the directives from Agitprop, each editor-in-chief meets with the editors of his political sections (local and foreign) and with his economic editor, who is considered the equal of the political editors, to give them the basic line to be followed and the number of articles required for a certain time. 2. Each morning the editor-in-chief calls a meeting of his editors, who submit their material in accordance with the policy set at the weekly meetings. It is then decided finally what will appear in the following day's paper, and if any changes are required they must be entered before noon. In the afternoon the material is checked by a group of three to five censors, at least one of whom represents the Army. The news editors are the last to submit their material, 99 percent of which is copied from the bulletins of TASS (Soviet News Agency) and the Bülgarska Telegrafna Agentsiya (BTA; Bulgarian News Agency). 3. The head censor of Trud and Zemedelsko Zname is Krüstyu Stoychev He was returned to Agitprop in early 1953 and was appointed censor of the above papers. 25 4. Lupo Rosenstein is one of the persons at the BTA responsible for the concentration of news from Yugoslavia. He is also the commentator on Yugoslav questions at Radio Sofia. Nissim Benbassat is one of the persons at the BTA
1. Agitprop (Agitatsiya I Propaganda), headed by Todor Zhivkov who is a member of the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party, decides the policy of editorials and political articles to be printed in the press. It holds weekly meetings for this purpose with editors-in-chief of the important papers-Trud, Otechestven Front, Rabotnichesko Delo, Zemedelsko Zname, and Marodna Mladesh. On receiving the directives from Agitprop, each editor-in-chief meets with the editors of his political sections (local and foreign) and with his economic editor, who is considered the equal of the political editors, to give them the basic line to be followed and the number of articles required for a certain time. 2. Each morning the editor-in-chief calls a meeting of his editors, who submit their material in accordance with the policy set at the weekly meetings. It is then decided finally what will appear in the following day's paper, and if any changes are required they must be entered before noon. In the afternoon the material is checked by a group of three to five censors, at least one of whom represents the Army. The news editors are the last to submit their material, 99 percent of which is copied from the bulletins of TASS (Soviet News Agency) and the Bulgarska Telegrafna Agentsiya (BTA; Bulgarian News Agency). 3. The head censor of Trud and Zemedelsko Zname is Krüstyu Stoychev He was returned to Agitprop in early 1953 and was appointed censor of the above papers. 25 4. Lupo Rosenstein is one of the persons at the BTA responsible for the concentration of news from Yugoslavia. He is also the commentator on Yugoslav questions at Radio Sofia. Nissim Benbassat is one of the persons at the BTA				THE S	THE APPRAISAL O	F CONTENT IS TO
1. Agitprop (Agitatsiya I Propaganda), headed by Todor Zhivkov who is a member of the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party, decides the policy of editorials and political articles to be printed in the press. It holds weekly meetings for this purpose with editors-in-chief of the important papers-Trud, Otechestven Front, Rabotnichesko Delo, Kemedelsko Zhame, and Marodna Mladezh. On receiving the directives from Agitprop, each editor-in-chief meets with the editors of his political sections (local and foreign) and with his economic editor, who is considered the equal of the political editors, to give them the basic line to be followed and the number of articles required for a certain time. 2. Each morning the editor-in-chief calls a meeting of his editors, who submit their material in accordance with the policy set at the weekly meetings. It is then decided finally what will appear in the following day's paper, and if any changes are required they must be entered before noon. In the afternoon the material is checked by a group of three to five censors, at least one of whom represents the Army. The news editors are the last to submit their material, 99 percent of which is copied from the bulletins of TASS (Soviet News Agency) and the Bulgarska Telegrafna Agentsiya (BTA; Bulgarian News Agency). 3. The head censor of Trud and Zemedelsko Zname is Krustyu Stoychev He was returned to Agitprop in early 1953 and was appointed censor of the above papers. Lupo Rosenstein is one of the persons at the BTA responsible for the concentration of news from Yugoslavia. He is also the commentator on Yugoslav questions at Radio Sofia. Nissim Benbassat is one of the persons at the BTA	·				(FOR K	ET SEE REVERSE)	·	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	25)
of the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party, decides the policy of editorials and political articles to be printed in the press. It holds weekly meetings for this purpose with editors-in-chief of the important papers-Trud, Otechestven Front, Rabotnichesko Delo, Zemedeleko Zname, and Narodna Mladezh. On receiving the directives from Agitprop, each editor-in-chief meets with the editors of his political sections (local and foreign) and with his economic editor, who is considered the equal of the political editors, to give them the basic line to be followed and the number of articles required for a certain time. 2. Each morning the editor-in-chief calls a meeting of his editors, who submit their material in accordance with the policy set at the weekly meetings. It is then decided finally what will appear in the following day's paper, and if any changes are required they must be entered before noon. In the afternoon the material is checked by a group of three to five censors, at least one of whom represents the Army. The news editors are the last to submit their material, 99 percent of which is copied from the bulletins of TASS (Soviet News Agency) and the Bulgarska Telegrafna Agentsiya (BTA; Bulgarian News Agency). 3. The head censor of Trud and Zemedelsko Zname is Krustyu Stoychev He was returned to Agitprop in early 1953 and was appointed censor of the above papers. 25 4. Lupo Rosenstein is one of the persons at the BTA responsible for the concentration of news from Yugoslavia. He is also the commentator on Yugoslav questions at Radio Sofia. Nissim Benbassat is one of the persons at the BTA
of the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party, decides the policy of editorials and political articles to be printed in the press. It holds weekly meetings for this purpose with editors-in-chief of the important papers-Trud, Otechestven Front, Rabotnichesko Delo, Zemedeleko Zname, and Narodna Mladezh. On receiving the directives from Agitprop, each editor-in-chief meets with the editors of his political sections (local and foreign) and with his economic editor, who is considered the equal of the political editors, to give them the basic line to be followed and the number of articles required for a certain time. 2. Each morning the editor-in-chief calls a meeting of his editors, who submit their material in accordance with the policy set at the weekly meetings. It is then decided finally what will appear in the following day's paper, and if any changes are required they must be entered before noon. In the afternoon the material is checked by a group of three to five censors, at least one of whom represents the Army. The news editors are the last to submit their material, 99 percent of which is copied from the bulletins of TASS (Soviet News Agency) and the Bulgarska Telegrafna Agentsiya (BTA; Bulgarian News Agency). 3. The head censor of Trud and Zemedelsko Zname is Krustyu Stoychev He was returned to Agitprop in early 1953 and was appointed censor of the above papers. 25 4. Lupo Rosenstein is one of the persons at the BTA responsible for the concentration of news from Yugoslavia. He is also the commentator on Yugoslav questions at Radio Sofia. Nissim Benbassat is one of the persons at the BTA their material in accordance with the policy set at the weekly meetings. It is then decided finally what will appear in the following day's paper, and if any changes are required they must be entered before noon. In the afternoon the material is checked by a group of three to five censors, at least one of whom represents the Army. The news editors are the last to submit their material, 99 percent of which is copied from the bulletins of TASS (Soviet News Agency) and the Bulgarska Telegrafna Agentsiya (BTA; Bulgarian News Agency). 3. The head censor of Trud and Zemedelsko Zname is Krustyu Stoychev 25 He was returned to Agitprop in early 1953 and was appointed censor of the above papers. 25 4. Lupo Rosenstein is one of the persons at the BTA responsible for the concentration of news from Yugoslavia. He is also the commentator on Yugoslav questions at Radio Sofia. Nissim Benbassat is one of the persons at the BTA 25.		week]	Ly meetir	and polices for	litical artic this purpose ont Rabotnic	les to be p with editor hesko Delo.	rinted in the pr s-in-chief of th Z emedelsko Znam	ess. It noids e important paper e. and Narodna	s
He was returned to Agitprop in early 1953 and was appointed censor of the above papers. Lupo Rosenstein is one of the persons at the BTA responsible for the concentration of news from Yugoslavia. He is also the commentator on Yugoslav questions at Radio Sofia. Nissim Benbassat is one of the persons at the BTA 25.	j	Mlade with econothem	y meetir Oteches Exh. On the edit omic edit	and policy and policy for the policy	this purpose ont, Rabotnic ong the direct ois political	les to be p with editor hesko Delo , ives from A sections (d the equal	rinted in the pr s-in-chief of th Zemedelsko Znam gitprop, each ed local and foreig of the politica	ess. It holds e important paper e, and Narodna itor-in-chief mee n) and with his l editors, to giv	s ts in early 1953 and was appointed censor of the above papers. Lupo Rosenstein is one of the persons at the BTA responsible for the concentration of news from Yugoslavia. He is also the commentator on Yugoslav questions at Radio Sofia. Nissim Benbassat is one of the persons at the BTA 257	2.	Meekl Trud. Mlade with econothem certs Each their is the whom	Ly meetir, Oteches, exh. On the editoric editori	and policy	this purpose tont, Rabotnic and the direct his political is considere to be followed tor-in-chief cordance with a live what will ired they musked by a group Army. The ne is copied from the sound from the copied from the co	les to be powith editor hesko Delo, ives from A sections (d the equal d and the n calls a mee the policy appear in t be entere p of three was editors m the bulle	rinted in the pr s-in-chief of th Zemedelsko Znam gitprop, each ed local and foreig of the politica umber of article ting of his edit set at the week the following da d before noon. to five censors, are the last to tins of TASS (So	e important paper e, and Narodna Itor-in-chief mee n) and with his l editors, to giv s required for a ors, who submit ly meetings. It y's paper, and if In the afternoon at least one of submit their mate viet News Agency)	s ts e of news from Yugoslavia. He is also the commentator on Yugoslav questions at Radio Sofia. Nissim Benbassat is one of the persons at the BTA		Mlade with econd them certains their whom 99 p	Ly meetir, Oteches, exh. On the edit the basis ain time. morning r material changes material represent on Bulgarsk	the edial in ac led fina are required the final are relegations.	litical articities purpose ont, Rabotnic of the followestor-in-chief cordance with lly what will ired they musked by a ground Army. The neis copied froafna Agentsiy	les to be positives from A sections (de the equal de and the notable a meet the policy appear in the entere pof three was editors on the bullers (BTA; Bullers).	rinted in the pr s-in-chief of th Zemedelsko Znam gitprop, each ed local and foreig of the politica umber of article ting of his edit set at the week the following da defore noon. to five censors, are the last to tins of TASS (So garian News Agen	ess. It holds e important paper e, and Narodna itor-in-chief mee n) and with his l editors, to giv s required for a ors, who submit ly meetings. It y's paper, and if In the afternoon at least one of submit their mate viet News Agency) ccy).	s ts e
YEAR RE-REVIEW SECRET/CONTROL - U. S. OFFICIALS ONLY		Meekl Trud Mlade with econd them certs their is their whom 99 p the The	Ly meetir, Oteches, exh. On the edit the bastain time morning r material representatives and the edit r	and policy	litical articities articities purpose ont, Rabotnic on the direct of the political is considere to be followed tor-in-chief cordance with a cordance with the cordance with th	les to be positive to be positive from A sections (de the equal de and the notable and the notable and the policy appear in the enteres of three was editors and the buller (BTA; Bullelsko Zname	rinted in the pr s-in-chief of th Zemedelsko Znam gitprop, each ed local and foreig of the politica umber of article ting of his edit set at the week the following da d before noon. to five censors, are the last to tins of TASS (So garian News Agen e is Krustyu Stoy He was ret	ess. It holds e important paper e, and Narodna itor-in-chief mee n) and with his l editors, to giv s required for a ors, who submit ly meetings. It y's paper, and if In the afternoon at least one of submit their mate viet News Agency) ccy).	ts e
	3.	Meekl Trud Mlade with econor them certs their is their whom 99 p the The	Ly meetir, Oteches, ezh. On the edith of the basis in time morning rematerial represe ercent of Bulgarsk head cen arly 195	and policy and policy for the edition and final are required to the final are required to the final are required to the final are for the final are for the final are for the final are required to the	litical articities purpose ont, Rabotnic ont	les to be powith editor hesko Delo, ives from A sections (do the equal do and the notable appear in the entere pof three was editors of three was editors and the bullers (BTA; Bullelsko Zname densor of the also the constant the lesko densor of the also the constant densor at the lesko densor at the lesko densor of the	rinted in the pr s-in-chief of th Zemedelsko Znam gitprop, each ed local and foreig of the politica umber of article ting of his edit set at the week the following da defore noon. to five censors, are the last to tins of TASS (So garian News Agen e is Krustyu Stoy He was ret ne above papers.	ess. It holds e important paper e, and Narodna itor-in-chief mee n) and with his l editors, to giv s required for a ors, who submit ly meetings. It y's paper, and if In the afternoon at least one of submit their mate viet News Agency) cy). The chev curned to Agitprop e for the concent: oslav questions ar	ts e erial, and 255

(Note: Washington Distribution Indicated By "X"; Field Distribution By "#".)