THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 50X1-HUM

1. In 1953, The First Secretary of every SED Kreis Directorate received a communication signed by Walter Ulbricht¹⁾ directing that an instructor for Volkspolizei matters be nominated. The name of the SED member designated was to be submitted to Department M²⁾ of the SED Central Committee for confirmation. The M-Instructor was to be directly responsible to the First Secretary of the Kreis Directorate.³⁾ Insert from page 2.
2. Since that time every SED Kreis Directorate has appointed one M-Instructor and every SED Bezirk Directorate two.³⁾ These instructors are responsible for relations between the SED directorates and the competent Volkspolizei offices at the Kreis and Bezirk level. They are further responsible for political guidance and direction (Anleitung) of the Volkspolizei and for the recruitment of Volkspolizei members. The M-Instructors also acts as liaison man between the Secretariat of the SED Directorates and the competent Volkspolizei commander at Kreis and Bezirk level.⁴⁾

2. Department M of the SED Central Committee was newly organized at this time. There is no Department M as such at the Kreis and Bezirk level, merely one and two M-Instructors respectively.
3. These instructors handle only Volkspolizei matters. They have nothing to do with the State Secretariat for State Security (SfS) or with the Kampfgarte Volkspolizei (KVP).
4. Until 1952 or 1953, the competent Volkspolizei officer took part in all SED Kreis Secretariat sessions. With the introduction of the M-Instructors, this practice ceased. Today these instructors perform all liaison of this nature.
