1. The Yugoslav Government has full control of the internal situation. No signs of factionalism are noticeable in the security organs. 25X1
2. The position of Gen. Peko Dapcevic is by no means good. Despite appearances to the contrary, it is very doubtful whether he can ever regain his former importance and prestige.
3. The situation of the Cominformists has not changed essentially, although some improvement has taken place in their situation recently. Efforts are being made to popularize the Russians, but there have been no signs of the efforts being successful among the people, with the possible exception of the Montenegrins. 25X1
