	Comment. The shipments contained deliveries from hydrogenation plants in the GDR to the USSR, or consisted of empty tank cars which returned to the GDR.
	Comment. The shipments contained uranium ore from the Uranium Mining Histrict in Saxony.
	Comment. The shipments contained iron ore for the Eisenhuetten-Kombinat Ost at Fuerstenberg/Oder.
	Comment. This shipment probably belongs to the rail movement of air force units from the USSR to the GDR. Frankfurt/Oder is believed to be redispatching station. See Comment 12.
•	Comment. The shipments probably contained motor vehicles from the USSR which belonged to the vehicle exchange movement.
	Comment. The shipments consisted of cars delivered by waggon factories in the GDR to the USSR together with broad gauge wheels.
•	Comment. These shipments of tank cars possibly belong to the movement of empty tank cars to Brest Litovsk. Another report indicated that this movement terminated on 28 March 1955.
	Comment. The shipments probably belong to the rail movement of Soviet technical air force units from the USSR or Poland to the GDR. See also Comment 12.
•	Comment. The shipments probably contained ammunition from the USGR for the Soviet ammunition depot at Altengrabow.
•	Comment. The shipments which contained new tank types (T-54) were previously reported.
	Comment. The report gives precise dates of the previously reported shuttle-train movements.
	Comment. Excerpts from this report were previously disseminated
