- 1.  Comment. Deliveries from East Germany railroad factories to the USSR. These shipments are probably identical with previously reported shipments.  . 25X1
- 2.  Comment. The consignee of the shipment cannot be determined. It appears unusual that heavy-duty flatcars were used for the shipment of rocket launchers. They are usually shipped on a two-axle flatcar with a 15-ton carrying capacity. 25X1
- 3.  Comment. These trains probably carried technical air force units (OATBs) from the USSR to the GDR in connection with the current reinforcement of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army. Two similar shipments dispatched to Werder and Brand  . 25X1
- 4.  Comment. This shipment is probably identical with a previously reported shipment which was unloaded at Satzkorn on 8 April. 25X1
- 5.  Comment. Deliveries from the uranium ore mining district in Saxony to the USSR. 25X1
- 6.  Comment. These shipments are connected with the reinforcement of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army.  25X1
 The eight shipment recorded in the present report may be identical with a shipment which arrived at Oranienburg on 30 March. 25X1
