L

PLACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE 1. Vessel visited Ventspils late in November and early in December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funcels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 2. Two powerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground weells in the area between the moles. 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed about one nautical mile moth of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile moth of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile moth of the harbor. The searchlights swept the surface of the water weight in sucession, then pauseffor about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 5. Several batteries of searchlights were about five minutes 5. Several batteries of searchlights were the authace of the water water again. 5. Several batteries of searchlights were the surface of the water again. 5. Several batteries of searchlights were about five minutes 5. Several batteries of searchlights were about five minutes 5. Several batteries again. 5. S	Bight AD MAR AD, LE MARAMANN & PRESIDE & WICH IN AN ON REAL OF LABOR 1 & DEALMARE by LEX. SHARE OF INTO. COUNTRY USSR (Latvish SSR) SUBJECT Port of Ventspils DATE OF INFO. REPORT PLACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information REFERENCES DATE COLINEAL This is UNEVALUATED Information REFERENCES SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE 25X1 They sessel visited Ventspils late in November and early in December 195%. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Toon Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funcels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterna". 25X1 2. Two poperful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the barbor. The course lies much nearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground wheells in the stress between the mplies. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the largort Quay. The area was lighted, and work west forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along	This material cont	ains information effecting the Wester of the	Defense of the United States within the second states -
COUNTRY USER (Latvisn SSR) REPORT SUBJECT Port of Ventepils DATE DISTR. 8 July 1995 NO. OF PAGES 1 REQUIREMENT PAGE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE 1. Vessel visited Ventepils late in November and early in December 195%. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the foun Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was bout 200 feet in This layer sterms". 2. Two patential modern tags were observed in the harbor. 3. The range lights marked on Admirally Otart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much neaver the north mole. The harbor were breaking ground 25X1 whells in the area between the moles. 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work vent forward throughout the night. 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of the was bout one natural mile methor the harbor entrance. The searchlights were the surface of the water to the surface of the mole about file mutues before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	COUNTRY USER (Latvisn SSR) REPORT BUDJECT Port of Venteyils DATE DISTR. & July 1995 NO. OF PAGES 1 REQUIREMENT PAGE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IN TENTATIVE 1. Vessel visited Venteyils late in November and early in December 195%. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was bound 200 feet in "mine layer sterms". 2. Two paterful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 3. The range lights marked on Admirally Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much neaver the north mole. The harbor were breaking ground 25X1 whells in the area between the moles. 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work vest forward throughout the night. 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. The searchlights were block the winface of the water to the navbor entrance. The searchlights were the surface of the water to the newtore. The searchlights were the surface of the water to the newtore of the marbor about five minutes 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	18, U.S.C. Secs. 793	and 794, the transmission or revelation	of which in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by	law.
SUBJECT Port of Ventspils DATE DIST. 8 July 1955 DATE OF INFO. Import of Ventspils Import of Ventspils Import of Ventspils DATE OF INFO. This is UNEVALUATED Import of Ventspils Import of Ventspils DATE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Import of Ventspils Import of Ventspils SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONFERMING The Town quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funcels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two poerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breased from west-tomothwest. There were breaking ground twells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. The operful grade and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	SUBJECT Port of Ventspils DATE DIST. 8 July 1995 DATE OF INFO.			S-E-C-R-E-T
SUBJECT Port of Ventspils DATE DIST. 8 July 1995 DATE OF INFO. REFERENCES 1 PLACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED REFERENCES DATE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED REFERENCES DATE DIST. SUBJECT Vessel visited Ventspils late in November and early in December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funcels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two poerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breaze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground wells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile moth of the harbor. The spuestfor about five minutes 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. The spuestfor about five minutes 25X1 25X1 25X1 <td>SUBJECT Port of Ventspils DATE DIST. 8 July 1995 DATE OF INFO. </td> <td>COUNTRY</td> <td>Dissp (Leturing COD)</td> <td></td> <td></td>	SUBJECT Port of Ventspils DATE DIST. 8 July 1995 DATE OF INFO.	COUNTRY	Dissp (Leturing COD)
DATE OF INFO. NO. OF PAGES 1 PRACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED REFERENCES DATE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED REFERENCES DATE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED REFERENCES 1. December 1954. Fifteen maval vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two runnels. The others were smaller vessels with "minue layer sterms". 25X1 2. Two poærful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entring or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff threeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground twells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and of the harbor. One of them was located about one neutical mile noth of the harbor. One of the was located about one mutical mile noth of the harbor about of the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	DATE OF INFO. NO. OF PAGES 1 PRACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED REFERENCES DATE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED REFERENCES DATE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED REFERENCES 1. December 1954. Fifteen maval vessels usually lay st the Town Quey. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two runnels. The others were smaller vessels with "minue layer sterms". 25X1 2. Two paerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff threeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground twells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor. The searchlights swere observed along the water of the water twice in succession, then pausefor about five minutes 25X1 25X1 Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor entrance. The s		·
DATE OF INFO. REQUIREMENT PLACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE 1. Vessel visited Ventspils late in November and early in December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the flow Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two flumels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two poerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground twells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed about one nautical morth of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical morth of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then pausefor about five minutes 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	DATE OF INFO. REQUIREMENT PLACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE 1. Vessel visited Ventspils late in November and early in December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the flown Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funnels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two poerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground twells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of thews located about one nautical morth of the harbor charance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then pauselfor about five minutes 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	JUDJECI	Fort of Ventspils	DATE DISTR. 8 July 1955
PLACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information REFERENCES 1. SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE 1. December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the "own Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funnels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two powerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground wells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Inport Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed about one nautical mile morth of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile morth of the harbor and puselfor about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	PLACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information REFERENCES 1. SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE 1. December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funnels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two powerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breaze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground wells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Inport Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then pauseffor about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1			NO. OF PAGES 1
DATE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE 1. December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Toxn Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funnels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two powerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground 25X1 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor one of them was located about of five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 Sinte x ARMY x NAVY x AR	DATE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE 1. December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funnels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterms". 25X1 2. Two powerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stift breaze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground 25X1 weells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed about one nautical mile north at the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water wice in succession, then puseffor about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	DATE OF INFO.		REQUIREMENT
Information SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE 1.	Information SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE 1.	PLACE ACQUIRED		REFERENCES
SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE 1. vessel visited Ventspils late in November and early in December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funnels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two powerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much nearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground twells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile nark of the harbor entrole. The searchlight sayet the surface of the water twice in succession, then pausetfor about five minutes 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE 1. vessel visited Ventspils late in November and early in December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funnels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two powerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much nearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground twells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor entroce. The searchlight savept the surface of the water twice in succession, then pausetfor about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	DATE ACQUIRED
December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town QDAY. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funnels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two poerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground twells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile moth of the harbor. One of them was located about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 State x x x x x 25X1 25X1 x x x x x x x x <t< td=""><td>December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funnels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two poerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground weells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile moth of the harbor. One of them was located about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 State x x x x x 25X1 25X1 25X1 x x x x x x x</td><td></td><td>· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·</td><td>NITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE</td><td></td></t<>	December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funnels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two poerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground weells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile moth of the harbor. One of them was located about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 State x x x x x 25X1 25X1 25X1 x x x x x x x		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	NITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE
December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town QDAY. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funnels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two poerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground twells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile moth of the harbor. One of them was located about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 State x x x x x 25X1 25X1 x x x x x x x x <t< th=""><th>December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funnels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two poerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground weells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile moth of the harbor. One of them was located about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 State x x x x x 25X1 25X1 25X1 x x x x x x x</th><th></th><th></th><th></th><th></th></t<>	December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funnels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two poerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground weells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile moth of the harbor. One of them was located about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 State x x x x x 25X1 25X1 25X1 x x x x x x x
December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in "nine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two powerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground twells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor. One of them was located about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 State x x 25X1	December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in "aine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two powerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground twells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor. One of them was located about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 State x x 25X1 25X1 </th <th></th> <th></th> <th></th> <th></th>
December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in "nine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two poerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground twells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile moth of the harbor. One of them was located about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 State x x 25X1 25X1 <td>December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in "nine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two poerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground twells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile moth of the harbor. One of them was located about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 State x x 25X1 25X1<td>, ,</td><td></td><td></td><td></td></td>	December 1954. Fifteen naval vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in "nine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two poerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground twells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile moth of the harbor. One of them was located about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 State x x 25X1 25X1 <td>, ,</td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td>	, ,
came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funnels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two powerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground twells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then paused for about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 State x X ARMY x X ARMY X ARM X	came and left constantly. One of the vessels was about 200 feet in length, and had two funnels. The others were smaller vessels with "mine layer sterns". 25X1 2. Two powerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground twells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then pauselfor about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	Decemb	er 1954. Fifteen naval w	vessels usually lay at the Town Quay. They
 "mine layer sterns". 2. Two powerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground swells in the area between the moles. 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile moth of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then pauselfor about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1 	 "mine layer sterns". 2. Two powerful modern tugs were observed in the harbor. 25X1 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much mearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground swells in the area between the moles. 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile moth of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then pauselfor about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1 	came a length	nd left constantly. One , and had two funnels. 7	of the vessels was about 200 feet in	25 X 1
 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much nearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground fivells in the area between the moles. 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then pauselfor about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 	 3. The range lights marked on Admiralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much nearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground fivells in the area between the moles. 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then pauselfor about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 	"mine	layer sterns".
by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much nearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground fivells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor entrance. The searchlight swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then pauselfor about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 State x X	by vessels entering or leaving the harbor. The course lies much nearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground fivells in the area between the moles. 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor entrance. The searchlight swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then pauselfor about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 State x X	2. Two po	erful modern tugs were of	bserved in the harbor.	25X1 nearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then paused for about five minutes 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then paused for about five minutes 25X1 25X1 25X1	nearer the north mole. The harbor was closed for two days, because of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground 25X1 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then paused for about five minutes 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then paused for about five minutes 25X1 25X1 25X1		nge lights marked on Admi	iralty Chart No. 1770 were not followed of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground 25X1 # A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then paused for about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1	of a stiff breeze from west-northwest. There were breaking ground 25X1 #wells in the area between the moles. 4. A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then paused for about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1	nearer	the north mole. The har	rbor was closed for two days, because
 A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of 25X1 before sweeping the water again. 25X1 	 A large dredge was observed working above the Import Quay. The area was lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then paused for about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 	ofas	tiff breeze from west-nor	rthwest. There were breaking ground	25X1 lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then paused for about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1	lighted, and work went forward throughout the night. 25X1 5. Several batteries of searchlights were observed along the coast north and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile north of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then paused for about five minutes 25X1 25X1 25X1	4. A larg	e dredge was observed wor	rking above the Import Quev The area was
and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile 25X1 north of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of 25X1 before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 state x ARMY x NAVY x AlR rbi AEC 1	and south of the harbor. One of them was located about one nautical mile 25X1 north of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of 25X1 before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 state x x ARMY x NAVY x AIR x FBI	lighte	1, and work went forward	throughout the night.	25X1
North of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then pauselfor about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1	Morta of the harbor entrance. The searchlights swept the surface of the water twice in succession, then pausel for about five minutes before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1		l batteries of searchligh	nts were observed along the coast north the water twice in succession, then paused for about five minutes 25X1 before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 STATE x ARMY x NAVY x AIR x FBI AEC AEC AEC	the water twice in succession, then paused for about five minutes 25X1 before sweeping the water again. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 STATE x ARMY x NAVY x AIR x FBI AEC Image: content of the second se	5. Severa	the narbor. Une o	DI them was located about one nautical mile The searchlights swent the surface of
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	and so north o	f the harbor entrance. T	The particle of	2514
25X1 25X1 25X1 STATE X ARMY X NAVY X AIR X FBI AEC	25X1 25X1 25X1 STATE X ARMY X NAVY X AIR X FBI AEC	and so north o the wa	i the harbor entrance. T ter twice in succession,	then paused for about five minutes	25 X 1
25X1	25X1	and so north o the wa	i the harbor entrance. T ter twice in succession,	then paused for about five minutes	25X1
25X1	25X1	and so north o the wa	i the harbor entrance. T ter twice in succession,	then paused for about five minutes
25X1	25X1	and so north o the wa	i the harbor entrance. T ter twice in succession,	then paused for about five minutes
STATE X ARMY X NAVY X AIR X FBI AEC	STATE X ARMY X NAVY X AIR X FBI AEC	and so north o the wa	i the harbor entrance. T ter twice in succession,	then paused for about five minutes	25X1
STATE X ARMY X NAVY X AIR X FBI AEC	STATE X ARMY X NAVY X AIR X FBI AEC	and so north o the wa	i the harbor entrance. T ter twice in succession,	then paused for about five minutes	25X1
STATE X ARMY X NAVY X AIR X FBI AEC	STATE X ARMY X NAVY X AIR X FBI AEC	and so north o the wa	i the harbor entrance. T ter twice in succession,	then paused for about five minutes	25X1
		and so north o the wa	i the harbor entrance. T ter twice in succession,	then paused for about five minutes	25X1 25X1
		and so north o the wa	f the harbor entrance. T ter twice in succession, sweeping the water again	then paused for about five minutes 1.	25X1 25X1
		and so north o the wa	f the harbor entrance. T ter twice in succession, sweeping the water again	then paused for about five minutes 1.	25X1 25X1

Approved For Release 2007/12/05 : CIA-RDP80-00810A007300320006-3