and without rifle, physical training and theoretical instruction were repeatedly observed. On 29 April, 32 KVPs without rifles marched from the castle to the Oranienburg concentration camp. On 23 May, 90 KVPs pitched 7 to 8 small tents in the training area of the castle. On 24 May, the number of tents had increased to 1 large and 15 small tents, all of which appeared to be occupied. Reconditioning work was done in the installation. It was determined that Captain Wirsik belonged to the staff.<sup>4</sup>

8. Between 20 and 25 May, 69 young civilians with small suit cases and preceded by an officer from the Oranienburg registration office, entered the castle.<sup>5</sup>
9. On 3 June, 10 trucks with trailers occupied by troops and firing equipment left the Naumburg KVP school.<sup>6</sup> 25X1
10. On 4 April, a participant of the SED Bezirksdelegiertenkonferenz (conference of district delegates) stated that demonstrations by students had occurred in Greifswald on 31 March, because the medical faculty of the university was to be reorganized into a KVP medical school. During the night of 31 March/1 April, all large enterprises had reportedly been occupied by SED combat groups. Additional armed combat groups had been moved there from other places.
11. In early May, a student from the Jena university stated that representatives of the state secretariat for university affairs and the KVP tried to make medical students of all semesters of the Jena university volunteer for the KVP medical school in Greifswald.
1. Comment. Previous reports indicated that, in addition to motor-technical courses for officer candidates, special courses for motor transport officers were conducted at the Leibgardehusaren Kaserne in Potsdam, which is believed to quarter also the KVP motor vehicles school. The motor transport officers or others were possibly also trained as railway engineers. Special courses for technical officers may be also held at this school. 25X1
2. Comment. The engineer school is confirmed in Dessau. The present training area of the school, 5 km east of Rosslau, is apparently located on the southern bank of the Elbe River, while the Soviet training area is located on the northern bank in the same area. 25X1
3. Comment. The information tends to support the previous assumption that the platoon and company leader school in Dessau had been deactivated. 25X1
4. Comment. The surveying unit was also mentioned by a deserter. 25X1
4. Comment. The pitching of tents in the training area of the Oranienburg castle, which is believed to quarter the AAA school may have been connected with reconditioning work in the castle and, at the same time, may serve training purposes.
5. Comment. The information confirms previous observations, according to which officer candidates entered the school without preceding military training. 25X1
6. Comment. An infantry school is believed to be located in Naumburg.
7. Comment. It is apparently intended to transform the medical faculty of the Greifswald university into a KVP medical school at the beginning of the winter semester. 25X1
