1. An air observation post is located on a house in the northern section of Veslets (N 41-23, E 25-18), Momchilgrad Okoliya. The post is guarded by four troops and has a telephone. An antenna is mounted on top of the house. A 12-meter wooden tower is located next to the house. A sentry with a sub-machine gun and binoculars is at the tower at all times. It is possible that the post has a radio station because soldiers were seen bringing storage batteries from Zlatograd. 25X1
2. Another air observation post is located in a three-story building near Batak (N 41-57, E 24-13), Peshtera Okoliya. It is east of the crossing of the Batak-Rakitovo and Batak-Dospat roads. The post has 3-4 soldiers and an antenna mounted on top of the building.
