MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Meeting on Proposed Revision of Circular #A-38

Mr. Graves of the Bureau of the Budget, with whom [redacted] and I and representatives of other agencies met last fall concerning the intention to revise Circular #A-38, has arranged for consultations with the National Association of Tax Administrators. Representatives of interested agencies are invited to attend a meeting at Minneapolis on Sunday, June 12 with representatives of NATA, during the three day convention of the NATA, for discussions concerning the proposed revision of Circular #A-38. I am advising Mr. Graves that the position of this Agency was set forth in [redacted] memorandum to him of 21 October 1959. Accordingly, it would not appear necessary for representatives of this Agency to attend. However, we of course would like to be kept informed and to participate in any revision that may be forthcoming.
