MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD 25X1A9a

SUBJECT: Conference with [REDACTED]

1. Pursuant to our interest in personally interviewing some selected Hungarian students and intellectuals in relation to our youth study, I had an extended discussion this morning with [REDACTED] who is now heading a special unit studying human behavior under conditions of stress. [REDACTED] activities had been called to my attention by the Office of Operations when I discussed with them on 2 January the possibility of arranging for the Hungarian interviews.

2. The essence of the discussion with [REDACTED] was as follows:

a. He is very much interested in the intent and scope of our youth study and would like to collaborate in any way possible.

b. Of interest to SRS probably far exceeding the youth study alone is his project for motives available to the Agency the professional advice and assistance of the country's leading psychologists, psychiatrists, sociologists, etc. in what he describes as an "inter-disciplinary" effort. For
