MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

SUBJECT: DD/I Meeting

25X1A9a

1. Mr. [redacted], CIA Congressional liaison officer, has been assigned to the Office of National Estimates during the slack season in connection with his duties on the Hill.

2. During the Director's absence on his trip, a weekly cable has been sent to him on non-substantive matters. This office has not had any occasion to contribute to the cable so far.

3. A certain amount of emphasis was put on contributions to the Consolidated Charities fund, etc. etc.

25X1A6a 4. The State Department has sent a formal commendation to the Agency from the Secretary's level because of CIA's contribution to the [redacted] on the subject of what steps those governments would take in connection with the Suez crisis.

25X1X7 5. Amory has requested that [redacted] paper on "International Recklessness" not be released until the Suez crisis is settled one way or another. He feels - and I feel that he is quite right - that it would be dramatically incongruous to have [redacted] study circulating in the event that the Suez crisis develops into military action and bloodshed.

25X1X4a 6. 25X1A9a the DD/I meeting I brought up in conversation with Mr. Amory the [redacted] memo of 24 May on the subject of research on Khrushchev's Secret Speech and Mr Wisner's memo of 23 August. Wisner suggested in his memo that [redacted]

25X1A5a 25X1A5a 7. Amory suggested that through the channels of [redacted] 25X1A9a get in touch with [redacted] 25X1A9a If they don't want to handle the problem, we should go on to [redacted] 25X1A9a I have turned the problem over to Kent, who will [redacted] 25X1A9a follow up with [redacted] upon [redacted] return from Leave. [redacted] has 25X1A9a 25X1A9a a copy of [redacted] memo, [redacted] ideas on [redacted] suggestion, and 25X1A9a 25X1A9a the memo from Wisner to Amory.
