Mr. William E. Colby
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Colby:

In view of the difficulties created in U.S.-European and U.S.-Japanese relations as a result of the Arab oil embargo, I would be interested in having your views on the possibility that the Soviet Union encouraged the oil-producing states to use oil as a political weapon.

Sincerely yours,

Charles H. Percy/sar
United States Senator

MEMORANDUM FOR: Messrs. [redacted] and Walsh

Senator Percy is asking the same question that PFIAB did -- what was the Soviet role vis-a-vis the Arabs and the oil embargo.

I have talked to [redacted] who will get back to me. However, he thinks an oral briefing would be in order. Attached is OER's Talking Paper on this subject prepared for last week's PFIAB.
