Mr. Harry H. Harper
Executive Editor
Readers Digest
Pleasantville, New York

Dear Mr. Harper:

Perhaps you still remember my late father. [redacted]

25X1

[redacted] when the three of you tried to fashion a story for the Readers Digest out of some of my father's experiences, after his arrival in this country following the 1948 communist coup in Czechoslovakia. You may be interested in knowing that most of the events you then discussed will be described in his upcoming memoirs which I helped put together
after his death, and which are to be published in 1974 by [redacted]

25X1

Incidentally, the fact that I am a CIA employee would have to be included in the byline, should the story be written and published. Also, it would have to be approved by [redacted] before publication.

25X1

Very sincerely,

25X1
