Congressman Lindley Beckworth has written to us concerning your interest in summer employment with the Central Intelligence Agency.

We regret to advise you that we do not have a program for summer-only employment. However, we shall be glad to receive an application from you when you become available for regular employment. If your interest in government service continues, we suggest that you contact us approximately six months prior to the time you would be available for employment.

Your interest is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Signed
