12 September 1966

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

Morning Meeting of 12 September 1966

25X1 ADD/I reported that the weekly examination by Task Force [redacted] was essentially negative, although two Soviet transports with unknown cargo have arrived in Haiphong.

Godfrey gave a rundown on the South Vietnamese election returns. He noted particularly that only 2 percent of the ballots were invalid, despite the fact that the Buddhists had hoped to use this technique to derogate the election. He mentioned that the White House had asked for election statistics on eight countries in order to compare their percentages of turnout with South Vietnam.

[redacted]

25X1

Godfrey reported that OCI had sent two memoranda to the White House on Saturday afternoon giving unclassified information on internal problems in North Vietnam and China.

Kent noted that an Estimate [redacted] is in preparation and that the terms of reference would be broadened to include the present situation and prospects.

25X1

Kent called attention to an article in the Sunday Washington Post on U. S. knowledge about Soviet rocketry based on "reconnaissance satellites."

25X1

[redacted]

Carver reported that, in connection with the South Vietnamese elections, there was a danger that U. S. news media might greatly exaggerate the aspect of padding in the returns; i. e. , NBC's 2330 Sunday coverage.
